Morgan,

Thank you for the print outs you sent to me thru the mail. It really narrows down a search quite well.

I have some family notes about cemetery where some of my ancestors are buried in Schuylkill County, PA.
According to notes these Eiler names are buried in a different section of the cemetery. Who knows if they are somehow connected to my tree way back! They do seem to fit in somewhat with your "E J 1" File?

Dear Mr. Fagley,

I am researching ILERs in Brown County and the Cincinnati, Ohio area. In particular I am interested in the George Washington ILERs, father and son of the same name. I note with interest that you mention BLACKMANs. George Washington ILER, Jr. named his son, Leander Blackman ILER. Leander Blackman

ILER was born 8 October 1831 in Cincinnati. His parents were, George 20531

Washington ILER, Jr. and Elizabeth HAMPTON. Leander married Leah Comfort 20530 20533

PENNY in 1865 at Locust Ridge, Brown County, Ohio. Leah was the daughter of

Allen PENNY, and Sarah WORTHINGTON.
 20855

G. W. ILER, Jr. married Elizabeth HAMPTON 15 December 1828 in Clermont 20530

County, Ohio. Their son, Leander, was the only survivor in the family of the 1832 cholera epidemic in Cincinnati.

G. W. ILER, Jr. was born about 1800 possibly in Pennsylvania and his parents are G. W. ILER, Sr. and Tobitha. According to G. W. ILER, Sr.'s 20363 20364 tombstone in the Mt Moriah Cemetery in Clermont County, Ohio, he was born in 1762 in New Jersey.

Do you think my ILERs were part of the group that migrated from New Jersey in the early 1800s?

I look forward to your reply,

Marta Metcalf

Subject: Old Bethel Methodist Homecoming 9-19-1999 2 pm

My snail mail includes an announcement of OLD BETHEL METHODIST CHURCH HISTORICAL SOC'S annual Homecoming, Sept 19, 1999.

Mother church of the JERSEY settlement, the original church was built in 1807, and this one in 1817, and very remodeled in 1865. My James Blackman, ship's carpenter, and bro-in-law REV JOHN COLLINS built it. David White's land.

5 + acrs of well cared [now] cemetery.

In about 1870, the church and church yard became a part of East Fork State Park, Lake Harsha. It was one of the very, very few buildings kept from the wrecker's ball. Since then, 2 non-denominational gatherings have been held each year. One at Memorial day, and this Homecoming.

My mother's years in this genealogy hobby meant she had a mailing list, that plus newspaper articles, led to the formation of the society, and the saving, and repairing of the church, 1970's.

Mailing address is now "Paula Craycraft, 3196 ST RT 133, BETHEL, OH 45106
MRS MARTY ROBINSON, Pres, writes

"We desperately need more active members. Yearly memberships are $2 a year. Lifetime memberships are $25.

Light refreshments are planned for the church lawn following the short program.

Church is a mile north of Bantam, Oh, between Amelia, and Bethel, Clermont Co, Oh

Church is on a park road off old RT 125. From modern RT 125-OHIO PIKE-BEECHMONT AVE, turn north at the RT 222 SOUTH traffic light, then north into the park. And bring a good camera, and color film. If the trees are turning, the church makes a great fall foliage picture. A CAM CORDER is handy in a cemetery

Back in the 1970's the church was reroofed, and repainted by the hist soc] Marty writes "We have had some roof repair done as there was a leak near the belfrey. Some damage to the ceiling plaster needed repair; . The whole building was painted again in 1992. There is floor damage in need of repair. "

Early Operator of Marvin Mill

Mr. Iler's life was one common to the very early pioneers - full of hardships, disappointments and the privations of the frontier life, and like many of the early pioneers, the fruits of his labors were reserved for the generations who followed. He was spared to the ripe old age of 83 years - a span of life that witnessed inventions and improvements little dreamed of by James Iler when he landed by ox team in Winterset, the outfit from which the Madisonian was printed. Of his later life we quote the following from the Nebraska State Journal.

"James Iler was born in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, May 1, 1822, and died Dec. 10, 1905, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Kate Stahn, three miles south of Pleasant Dale, Neb. (Mrs. Kate Stahn, along with her husband, William Stahn, moved to Woodruff, Kans., about 1905).

Mr. Iler was reared in Ohio and followed the trade of printer. In 1845, he was married to Sarah Foster. After remaining in Ohio a number of years they moved to Winterset, Ia. where he became the founder of the first newspaper published in Madison County. It was called the Iowa Pilot and entered the newspaper field in the summer of 1856.

From Winterset he removed his family to Palmyra, Neb. and took up farming. In 1860, he freighted westward to Pike's Peak, Colo. On his way home his wagon was attacked by a band of Indians. His wife was pierced by an arrow, but lived to reach home where she died leaving her husband and four small children of which three, James W., resides at Tacoma, Wash.; Ira at Sant Point, Idaho; and Mrs. Mary Newton at Waco, Neb. Five other children blessed this union, but died when they were small.

In 1861, Mr. Iler was married to Sophronia Reed. By this union came seven children: Mrs. Nettie Newton, Pleasant Dale, Neb.; Libbie Hall, Falls City, Neb.; Lucy Pratt (deceased, Ottumwa, Ia.); Orree Viemson, (deceased), Holyoke, Colo.; Kate Stahn of Pleasant Dale, Neb. - later Woodruff, Kans.; John, and Irequest, who died when infants.

On Nov. 3, 1862, Mr. Iler showed his patriotism by joining Co. F., 2nd Regiment, Nebraska Volunteers. After serving faithfully for his country, he was honorably discharged Dec. 10, 1863. After returning home he removed his family to Pleasant Dale, where he was appointed Postmaster, 1878. Later he moved to Crete and again took up the printer's trade."

Mr. Iler was 34 years of age when he founded the Winterset Madisonian in 1856. He was 39 years old when he married Sophronia Reed, mother of Kate Stahn and 40 years old when he joined the Union Army, 3rd, Nov., 1862 in Co. F, 2nd Reg. of Neb. Vol. He was at Marvin, Kans. in 1904 running the mill at age 82.

County records show he purchased 10 acres of ground in SW corner, SW 1/4 SW 1/4, 28-4-18, Phillips Co., Kans., same being some 3 1/2 miles southwest of Marvin, now called Glade, Ks. on the Solomon River on May 18, 1900. He was 78 years old when he started this venture. He operated this mill from May 18, 1900 to Jan. 7, 1905.

Subject: Eula Iler

Hi Morgan,

13018 - Y002561

My grandmother Eula Iler was born Dec 24, 1894 in Velasco, Texas (at the mouth of the Brazos River) in Brazos County (near Galveston). She married Joseph Lee Rainville in June 1914 and they had 5 children.

My aunt Della Ruth was the oldest, b: Feb 26, 1916 d: ?
then my Uncle Lester James Lee, b: August 4, 1918 my mother MaeBelle (NMN) , b: May 20, 1921, d: Feb 16, 1977 my aunt Adelaide Winnifred, b: Oct 22, 1923, d: ?
and my Uncle Garland, b: Sept 24, 1928, d: Aug 1987.

The family is centered around our homestead in Tiller, Oregon but their decendants are now spread all over. Through Joseph Rainville, my grandfather, we are all part of the Umpqua Indian Tribe (Cow Creek Band) and are a fully recognized tribe (recently re-instated as a tribe with full benefits). That's an interesting lineage to try to trace. Anyway I have most of my mother's diaries, some of Grandmother Eula's and some of their old family albums. I have been trying to scan in one album in particular, since it contains the oldest photos. Some of my mother when she was a toddler (obviously around 1923).

There is one photo of someone my grandmother "titles" grandpa with my mother as a toddler. He appears to be in his 60's / 70's (it's really hard to tell) but I don't believe anyone ever knew Joe Rainvilles parents, so I believe it to be my grandmother's father (grandpa to her kid's). Unfortunately, there's no real proof, but I believe it is James Iler (Ira's brother). I'll send you a copy attached to this e-mail. With him is my mother (Babs/MaeBelle) so I guess it's about 1923.

I really look forward to the data you have. Thanks a million and I'll try to fill you in on more data later.

Larry

Grandpa, B. & T.

Morgan,

Hi, Finally some information for you. And it has been checked. If you find anything wrong, just let me know. Highlighted in blue are the OS2 NUMBERS. Highlighted in red is new information and new people that you didn't have at the time you made up my booklet. I have a few theories about our Oiler Family OS2 Line, but will send an email separately. I tried to make this easier for you to just put them with their number or issue new ones, because I do know how busy you are. Let me know anything after you take a look see at this. You take care. Sincerely, Brenda Oiler Heaton

Sept. 14, 1999

P.S. I STARTED WITH JOHN OILER, SR. BECAUSE YOU HAVE THE ONES BEFORE HIM, IT JUST GOES TO SAMUEL 1, AND POLLY CALDWELL AS JOHN SR'S PARENTS. ALSO I HOPE THAT THE COLOR SYSTEM WORKS OK FOR YOU, IF THE COLORS BOTHER YOU, LET ME KNOW AND I WON'T USE COLORS. IT WAS JUST A WAY TO SEPARATE INFORMATION.

Descendants of John Oiler, Sr.

Notes for MARTIN LESTER OILER: (24269, OS2635)

Martin Lester Oiler and Marjorie Wymer were divorced.

Martin married three more times, information is incomplete at this time.

Martin played the guitar, wrote songs and poems.

Martin Lester Oiler and one of his other wives has a daughter, but no information is available at this time. Following is just one of the poems that Martin Lester Oiler wrote:

"WHEN THE WAGON WAS BRAND NEW"

THERE'S AN OLD AND RUSTING WAGON, NOW LEFT TO ROT AWAY. THE ONE THE FAMILY RODE IN? BACK IN THE GOOD OLD DAYS? EVERYONE LOVED THEIR NEIGHBORS, AND EVERYONE WAS FREE, AND A RIDE IN OUR NEW WAGON WAS SOMETHING TO SEE.

I CAN STILL SEE DADDY SITTING ON THE WAGON SEAT, MAMA IN HER BONNETT, LOOKED SO NICE AND NEAT. THE KIDS GOT IN THE WAGON, GRANDMA AND GRANDPA TOO, WE WENT TO CHURCH ON SUNDAY, WHEN THE WAGON WAS BRAND NEW.

RED WHEELS WERE ON THE WAGON, AND THE BODY SHINNING GREEN. AND WE WERE JUST AS HAPPY, AS IF IT WERE A LIMOUSINE, THE NEIGHBORS, THEY WOULD GATHER FROM ALL THE COUNTRY SIDE, TO LOOK AT OUR NEW WAGON, THEN ALL WOULD TAKE A RIDE.

THE AUTOMOBILE IS HERE NOW. THE WAGON'S DAY ARE THRU, THE AIRPLANES ARE FLYING. AND THE NEIGHBORS ARE SO FEW. EVERYONE IS IN A HURRY, IT'S THE MONEY THAT TAKE THEM THROUGH. BUT WE DIDN'T NEED MUCH MONEY, WHEN THE WAGON WAS BRAND NEW.

TYPED JUST AS IT WAS WRITTEN: BRENDA OILER HEATON

MARTIN IS 75 NOW, AND HE IS IN FAILING HEALTH. MY SISTER AND I HAVE BEEN IN TOUCH WITH HIM AS HE IS ALONE. RECENTLY, HE WAS MOVED INTO A PRIVATE HOME FOR THE AGED. HE LIKES IT REAL WELL, I THINK IT IS THE COMPANY THAT HE LIKES AS HE IS A VERY PERSONABLE MAN.

NOTES: WRITTEN BY: BRENDA OILER HEATON, 1999 AUGUST.

11. ALVA FRANKLIN⁴ OILER (JOHN³, JOHN², SAMUEL¹)^{111,112} was born September 02, 1898 in Seneca, Vinton, Ohio^{112,113}, and died April 04, 1968 in Seneca, Vinton, Ohio^{114,115,116}. He married (1) FRANCIS E. KINDER THOMPSON in Sometime in the 1940's, in Athens Co., Ohio, daughter of PETER KINDER and MARTHA RUSH. She was born October 03, 1902 in Perry County, Buckingham, Ohio, and died July 04, 1988 in Fostoria, Ohio. He married (2) RACHEL ROSE ERWIN^{117,118} December 13, 1920 in Gallia Co., Alice, Ohio^{119,120,121}, daughter of FRANK ERWIN and NETTIE MCGLOUGHEN. She was born July 28, 1902 in Gallia County, Ohio¹²², and died November 29, 1967 in Steubenville, Ohio^{123,124,125}. (RACHEL ERWIN-47739, OS2652*) (FRANCIS KINDER-IS NEW SHE DOESN'T HAVE AN OS2# YET.

MORGAN, IN YOUR FILES, THAT I SENT YOU, I DIDN'T HAVE COMPLETE INFORMATION ON ALVA FRANKLIN OILER'S SECOND MARRIAGE AND SON AS ISSUE OF THAT UNION. I GAVE YOU THE WRONG INFORMATION, I THOUGHT WAS TRUE AT THE TIME, AND IT WAS NOT. I THOUGHT HE HAD MARRIED A WOMAN WITH THE FIRST NAME, MARION, AND THEY HAD A SON, JOHN, KNOWN AS JOHNNY AND THAT JOHNNY OILER MARRIED MARTHA MCDANIEL'S AND THEY WERE SEPERATED AND FILED FOR A DIVORCE AND SHE MOVED BACK TO GALLOPOLIS WITH THE THREE CHILDREN, AND ON JULY 3, 1970 JOHNNY (WAS DRUNK) BROKE INTO MARTHA MCDANIELS HOUSE, SHE CALLED THE POLICE, WHEN THE POLICE CAME JOHNNY GRABBED A KITCHEN KNIFE AND THE POLICE SHOT AND KILLED HIM.

WELL, THIS INFORMATION IS CORRECT TO A POINT. ONE, IT IS NOT ALVA FRANKLIN OILER'S FAMILY, IT IS ANDREW JACKSON OILER, SON OF FREDERICK FRANKLIN OILER AND MIRANDA ERVIN'S FAMILY.

ANDREW J. OILER AND MARY HUTCHINSON HAD A SON, MARION FRANKLIN OILER, BORN: JULY 30, 1904 MARRIED BESSIE ELLEN SIDERS AND MARRIED FANNIE HOOD JOHNSON. MARION AND BESSIE HAD A SON, JOHN ALLEN OILER, BORN DEC. 14, 1938 AT MIDDLEPORT, MEIGS COUNTY, OHIO. JOHN WAS KNOWN AS JOHNNY. JOHN ALLEN OILER MARRIED MARTHA MCDANIELS, THEY HAD THREE CHILDREN, I HAVE THEIR NAMES HIS SOMEWHERE. IT WAS THIS JOHN OILER THAT GOT SHOT AND KILLED BY THE GALLOPOLIS POLICE, JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE. SO THE ABOVE STORY IS ALL TRUE, ONLY THE PARENTS ARE WHO I LISTED HERE. I HAVE FOUND MY HALF UNCLE JOHNNY AND HIS INFORMATION IS A FEW PARAGRAPHS DOWN.

Notes for EVELYN RUBY OILER:

Evelyn Ruby Oiler was known to all as Ruby. She was my aunt. She lived in Niles, Ohio. She was a great lady. Had a great love for family and life. Was dedicated to her family and always had open arms and a kiss. She also looked just like her mother, Rachel Erwin Oiler, which was a good thing, as I loved them both very much.

Aunt Ruby was a survivor. Years before she passed away, she lost her left arm, and what that woman couldn't do without an arm, I sure couldn't tell you, she did everything, even changed diapers using safty pins. In all the years she and my uncle were together, they still acted like it was all new. They were very close, and Uncle Mike didn't live long after she passed away.

Morgan, Hi, this is updated information on the Family Line of William Sylvester Oiler (36585,OS263) and Minnie Tamson Carriagan (36586,OS263*) and their families.

First, MINNIE TAMSON CARRIGAN'S real last name was O'KERRIGAN and she was born in Ireland. I had the date of birth as 1868, but one family member said the date of birth was 1881. The date 1868 was written in the Family Bible of MARJORIE WYMER, wife of MARTIN LESTER OILER. MARTIN LESTER is the son of WILLIAM SYLVESTER OILER and MINNIE TAMSON CARRIGAN (O'KERRIGAN). MINNIE'S maiden name is also in the bible as O'KERRIGAN. Now, here comes a bit more confusion. I don't know if MINNIE'S parents came from Ireland with MINNIE TAMSON CARRIGAN (O'KERRIGAN) and brother, CHARLES CARRIGAN (O'KERRIGAN) or not and if they changed their name from O'KERRIGAN to CARRIGAN. MINNIE had one brother, CHARLES O'KERRIGAN, or with the spelling change CARRIGAN his wife's name was FRANCES. MINNIE'S parents, nothing is known as yet. This information was given to me by MINNIE'S son, MARTIN LESTER OILER and her Grandson's JOSEPH MARTIN MILLS, EARL FRANKLIN MILLS, and MARTIN WILLIAM OILER. They all say MINNIE'S last name stayed O'KERRIGAN until she married WILLIAM SYLVESTER OILER, and that she was born in Ireland, she spoke with a thick Irish brogue and would sing to her children and tell them all about Ireland and growing up. When I first started researching this family, I had MINNIE'S name as O'KERRIGAN, but in your data base and other information showed her name as CARRIGAN, so I assumed that was the way her name was spelled. And it might be, as I am only relaying information given to me by Minnie's son, and Grandsons. So that is why it is listed in my file as Carrigan. Now I have to question the name.

You have the descendancy chart for WILLIAM SYLVESTER OILER and MINNIE TAMSON CARRIGAN (O'KERRIGAN). It was one that I sent before.

I have some additions to make to the descendancy chart, obtained more information from son, and grandsons of WILLIAM SYLVESTER OILER AND MINNIE TAMSON CARRIGAN (O'KERRIGAN).

MORGAN, HERE IS THE COLOR CODE FOR THIS UPDATED INFORMATION: TYPED IN BLUE ARE THE CHILDREN OF WILLIAM SYLVESTER OILER AND MINNIE TAMSON CARRIGAN.

ALL NEW PEOPLE ARE TYPED IN RED. ALSO DATES THAT YOU DON'T HAVE ARE TYPED IN RED.

CHILDREN BORN TO GLADYS OILER AND JOSEPH MARTIN MILLS, SR. ARE TYPED IN GREEN

THERE ARE A FEW "FACTS" THAT I AM UNSURE OF. I WILL PUT A ? BY THEM

THERE IS A QUESTION AS TO WHERE THE CHILDREN OF WILLIAM SYLVESTER OILER AND MINNIE TAMSON CARRIGAN WERE BORN. SON OF WILLIAM AND MINNIE, MARTIN LESTER OILER SAYS THAT THEY WERE ALL BORN AT HAWKS STATION, VINTON COUNTY, OHIO. BUT RESEARCHER, JAMES MICHAEL JOHNSON, SAYS DIFFERENTLY. IT IS MARTIN LESTER'S FAMILY, BUT JAMES MICHAEL JOHNSON IS USUALLY CORRECT.

LILLA MAE OILER, born May 10, 1898 is not the daughter of WILLIAM and MINNIE, she is the daughter of CHARLES, MINNIE'S brother. She married WILLIAM ROBINSON of Jefferson County, Ohio.??? (JAMES MICHAEL JOHNSON HAS IT THAT LILLA MAE OILER BORN MAY 10, 1898 IN MILTON TOWNSHIP, VINTON CO., OHIO, AND THAT SHE DIED MARCH 20, 1902 IN SHAWNEE IN PERRY COUNTY, OHIO.) ???(EARL MILLS AND MARTIN LESTER OILER SAY THAT LILLA MAE OILER IS THE DAUGHTER OF MINNIE'S BROTHER AS IS LISTED ABOVE.) (IT IS POSSIBLE THAT MINNIE AND WILLIAM HAD A CHILD NAMED LILLA MAE OILER AND SHE DID DIE YOUNG AND THAT MINNIE'S BROTHER HAD A DAUGHTER AND NAMED HER THE SAME NAME, AND THAT IS HOW THE CONFUSION CAME ABOUT, IT WAS SAID THAT MINNIE TAMSON CARRIGAN WAS PREGNANT TWENTY TIMES, AT LEAST, SO LILLA MAE MAY BE TWO PEOPLE). Children of WILLIAM SYLVESTER OILER and MINNIE TAMSON CARRIGAN (OKERRIGAN) are as follows typed in blue (1) MARY OILER, born June 20, 1901, AT HAWKS STATION, VINTON COUNTY, OHIO. 48966

(MARTIN LESTER OILER (24269, OS2635) said all of the children were born at Hawks Station, Vinton County, Ohio, except himself.) OR MARY OILER WAS BORN IN SHAWNEE, PERRY COUNTY, OHIO ACCORDING TO JAMES MICHAEL JOHNSON. MARY OILER married LESTER HOMER MARTIN. (NOW THIS IS A LITTLE CONFUSING HERE:) MARY OILER and LESTER HOMER MARTIN WERE MARRIED IN BROOKE COUNTY, WEST VIRGINIA (Just a little note here, I grew up and am from Brooke County, WV.) ON SEPTEMBER 2, 1922. LESTER HOMER MARTIN WAS BORN IN SHAWNEE, PERRY COUNTY OHIO ON JAN. 1, 1902. HE IS THE SON OF A.J. MARTIN AND JENNIE SEARCH. JENNIE'S PARENTS ARE MAHLON SEARCH (22717, OS262*) AND LUCINDA OILER (22716, OS262). 49162

COUSINS MARRIED. LUCINDA OILER IS THE SISTER OF WILLIAM SYLVESTER OILER, AUNT TO MARY OILER. MARY OILER AND LESTER HOMER MARTIN had a son, MARION SYLVESTER MARTIN. MARION MARRIED ELIZABETH VASILIEVNA ZARYTSKAIA, MARION AND ELIZABETH HAD A SON, RUSSELL EDWARD MARTIN, WHO HAS A PH D IN HISTORY AND TEACHES IN WESTERN PENNSYLVANIA. MARY OILER died in 1931 due to complications of giving birth, I don't know if this was with the birth of son, MARION SYLVESTER MARTIN or not, and if it is not, I am not sure if the baby survived or not. (2) GLADYS OILER, (48034, OS2632), born Aug. 19, 1903 at Hawks Station, Vinton County, Ohio. GLADYS OILER married JOSEPH MARTIN MILLS (48035, OS2632*) born 1896, died Sept. 26, 1963. Martin had one son with Marjorie Wymer, Martin William Oiler, all of his information is also on descendency chart. Martin Lester Oiler had one other child, a daughter to one of his other three wives, no further information as of yet. All of his information is on descendency report.

That's the end of the information update at this time.

Morgan, I had the good fortune to get in touch with Joe Mills, Jr. and Earl Mills. Joe lives close to me, and I had called Martin Lester Oiler, he is in a home for the aged, not that he is that old, he isn't, but he is dying of cancer. He is bed bound, I call him just to let him know that someone cares. I want to go and visit with him, but I will not go while I have even a cold, his system could not withstand it. When we talk, he likes to talk about his younger years, and I get him to laugh every time, even as sick as he is. Martin and my father were friends as well as relatives, so we talk alot about my Father too, which is something that I like to do. One day I called Martin and he said he had company, I knew of no other family and wondered if it was another person living in the home, but much to my surprise it was Joe Mills, Jr. whom I thought had died. When Martin told me who it was, my first thought was it was his pain medication talking. I was wrong, Joe was there and he gave me his phone number to call him and he would give me more information on the family. About two weeks ago, I called Joe at home and got another surprise, his brother Earl Mills was there for a visit from Florida and Earl carries names and dates of birth and some other family information with him. He gave me alot of the information in this update. Earl also gave me his address in Florida, his Aunt Pearl Oiler, daughter of William Sylvester and Minnie, had kept or had started keeping a notebook of family history. He said he would be glad to give it to me. I have to write to him and then I just might, hopefully have more information for you on this line of the family.

You are now in Washington. My brother lived in Puolup, don't know if that is the correct spelling or not. They could see Mt. St. Helen from their backyard. He is deceased and buried out there. He is the brother that died in the boating accident on Lake Lawrence. Larry Oiler.

Isn't that something how you are miles and miles from home and get an e-mail out of the blue and it turns out that she is so close. It really is a small world. I hope you had the chance to talk with her. I do have more information for you, but it needs some fine tuning and I need for the days to be about twice as long as they are. Also, in researching and studying our family, I have some questions that you may be able to shed some light on, and of course, I have some theories I want to run past you and get your opinion on. I will get this done soon. Just a few more lines, Do you have your booklet of your newsletters together yet? If they are ready to go, let me know as I am awaiting them. Also, let me know how much they are so I can get money out to you. I read in one of the ones you sent me, that you can make a CD of information, if someone wants it. I do. I will get the software that is needed because I like what you can do with yours. Until I get my own, I can view the CD at the library. Again, let me know the cost. Also, anything else you have that you think I would be interested in, and that is anything having to do with our families, let me know and I will purchase them. I am going to close for now. I will start sending info soon. Have a safe trip home. Best Regards to you and your family, Sincerely, Brenda Oiler Heaton

Dear Morgan,

There are some mistakes as you can easily see. Some people are in twice and I haven't learned how to make corrections.

Surprisingly people do not remember or want to remember information.

You certainly have my respect. It takes a lot of time and effort to gather so much information.

We are using software to organize the facts without it we couldn't keep anything straight.

Several years ago we learned about a Robert Iler. He was involved in music at the Moody Bible Institute.

We visited him in Canada. His father lived near Iler beach on Lake Erie.

They told us that a ^{Conrad} ~~John~~ Iler came from Rotterdam to Canada in 1700?

Did you know that?

Nancy Iler

P.S. Just re-read your letter & saw you knew about Conrad Iler. You can tell I am not a detail person.

James Iler, the first newspaper editor at Uhrichsville, had a long career as a journalist in Ohio, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas. But his whole life took a tragic turn during a trip with his wife across the Great Plains in 1860.

Iler grew up in Union Township just east of Dennison, the youngest son of William and Elizabeth Iler. His father died in 1826, only a couple of years after James was born, and his mother soon after married a man named Knisely. On Aug. 1, 1844, James married Sarah Foster, the daughter of Moses and Peree Foster. Sarah also grew up in Union Township.

In 1852, when he was 29, James started his own newspaper, the Uhrichsville Commercial Advertiser. The paper's offices were located in the Mechanic's Block, above Thompson's wareroom, on the west side of Water St.

The Commercial Advertiser was issued intermittently for about a year before it ceased publication. That was a common fate for newspapers in those days.

The next year, another newspaper, the Uhrichsville Enterprise, started up. In its premier issue on Aug. 17, 1853, the editor of the Enterprise wrote, "Much dissatisfaction has been evinced by the citizens of Uhrichsville and vicinity, in reference to the manner in which the Advertiser was conducted. The failure of a newspaper to make its regular issues, according to contract, is the grand objection to the course which our predecessor pursued. We have been injured by the suspicious notion that this may be the case with the Enterprise. We take this early opportunity of assuring our patrons that as long as we are in the enjoyment of good health our paper shall make its appearance."

But the Enterprise didn't last much longer than the Commercial Advertiser did.

After the failure of his newspaper, James Iler went west with his in-laws, settling in the vicinity of Winterset, Iowa. Iler published a newspaper in that state for a few years before moving on to Nebraska.

Then in 1860, he and his wife joined thousands of hopeful gold seekers bound for Colorado during the Pike's Peak gold rush. And like most of those gold seekers, the Ilers were disappointed in their search for gold. That August, they headed back home.

During the trip back, they were overtaken by another party of disappointed gold seekers which included J.T. Laizure, an old friend from Uhrichsville. The Ilers continued their journey with Laizure's group, according to Laizure, who wrote an account of the trip for the Uhrichsville Evening Chronicle in 1903.

career had tragic twist

One afternoon, the party came upon an Indian encampment. Sarah Iler wanted a pony to take home for a riding horse, so Mr. and Mrs. Iler and Laizure went to the camp to buy one.

A big Indian said he would sell them a pony, but after the Ilers looked at the horses, the Indian changed his mind. Instead, he sold them a mule. Sarah paid the Indian 20 silver dollars, and the Ilers and Laizure headed back to their camp with their purchase.

As the Ilers were leading the mule away, the Indian changed his mind about the sale. He made three attempts to take back the mule, but failed each time.

Finally the Indian came up to Sarah and dropped the silver dollars at her feet. She picked the money up, but found that she was two dollars short. Sarah told her husband to hold on to the mule until she got all her money back.

Laizure advised them to forget about the two dollars and return the mule before there was trouble. Iler took the halter off the mule, but the Indian wasn't satisfied. He acted as if he wanted to wrestle, so Iler sent him sprawling.

The Ilers got in their wagon and headed back to camp, with Laizure leading the oxen. Just before the Ilers reached their party, the big Indian and several armed companions arrived and opened fire. During the resulting skirmish, Sarah Iler was shot.

About noon next day, the party reached a ranch, where they found a doctor. But he could do nothing for her. So Laizure and Iler left their group and traveled through the night with Sarah to reach a town 30 miles away, where there was another doctor. This doctor was able to treat Sarah's wounds.

But Sarah only lived for another six months. "One day she had company and overdid herself," Laizure wrote. "She got sick and began to vomit, which broke open the old wound, and that killed her."

James Iler was overcome with grief. He went to his in-laws in Iowa, asking them to take care of his children while he devoted the rest of his life to killing Indians. They refused.

So Iler wisely went home, got himself a new wife and stayed with his family.

Iler lived a long life, and was still living in 1904, when he was a resident of Marvin, Kan. After receiving a copy of the Chronicle that year, he wrote to the paper, "It brings to mind the early scenes of Uhrichsville when the latter was a village of less than a thousand inhabitants who then gave their cordial support to The Commercial Advertiser, edited by the writer and the first paper printed in your city."

He Swears by His Character

So what's Robert Iler's motivation as a promising young actor? "I'm obsessed with Jennifer Love Hewitt, so I figured it would be really cool if somebody felt that way about me. I'm hoping to meet her. I have pictures of her all over my bedroom, and I kiss one before I go to bed at night." The meeting just might happen, considering Iler's newfound fame as Anthony Soprano Jr., the couch-potato teenage son who

"Robert is so deadpan," Chase says of Iler (with Edie Falco). "He just feels like a real kid."

spouts colorful language. "When I have to curse, the look on my mom's face is hysterical," says Iler, 14, of his mother, Helen, who works for New York City's Metropolitan Transportation Authority. "She reassures people, 'Oh, he doesn't do that at home.'"

Home for Iler is Manhattan's Upper East Side, where he lives with his mom and dad, Edward, 32, head engineer at a shopping mall, and brothers Michael, 5, and Brian, 1. His parents take turns escorting Iler to the set. "He has a private tutor to be sure he keeps up," says Helen, 33, who places her son's earnings in a trust, save for the $100 a month he gets to spend on extras such as football cards. And success is unlikely to change him. "My mom still yells at me the same amount," he says. "At least twice a day."

"Robert is so deadpan," Chase says of Iler (with Edie Falco). "He just feels like a real kid."

spouts colorful language. "When I have to curse, the look on my mom's face is hysterical," says Iler, 14, of his mother, Helen, who works for New York City's Metropolitan Transportation Authority. "She reassures people, 'Oh, he doesn't do that at home.'"

Home for Iler is Manhattan's Upper East Side, where he lives with his mom and dad, Edward, 32, head engineer at a shopping mall, and brothers Michael, 5, and Brian, 1. His parents take turns escorting Iler to the set. "He has a private tutor to be sure he keeps up," says Helen, 33, who places her son's earnings in a trust, save for the $100 a month he gets to spend on extras such as football cards. And success is unlikely to change him. "My mom still yells at me the same amount," he says. "At least twice a day."

"I'm actually a lot like my character. Just the things he does—the bad things he does. But he gets caught. I don't get caught."

Subject: Re: Friendship Week

Morgan, (Cousin? Absolutely & I will prove it someday)

Hello, hope all is well your way. I am still mending, and that is good. I wanted to tell you, although I really don't like passing on this kind of news, but it is all a part of life.

Friday, October 15, 1999, Martin Lester Oiler passed away. He had cancer and was not able to get himself out of bed for the longest time. (his # is 24269, OS2635) I had been surrogate daughter to him for months now, as he was a lonely man with little family ties. He has a son that lives no more than 15 miles away, and yet, since they had a falling out a few years ago, his only son was not a part of his life. Martin Lester only wanted to see his son and apologize for his part in the rift, and to tell his son that he loved him.

Marty, Martin's son never did make amends with his father, and for that it saddens me. I last spoke with Martin week before last, and we talked at the least two and a half hours, we had a nice visit and by the time we hung up, Martin was in much better spirits. I dislike strongly the obituary and am not sure who put it in the newspaper, I will cite it here, exactly as it is written: MARTIN L. OILER TORONTO (OHIO) --MARTIN L. Oiler, 76, of Toronto died Friday, Oct. 15, 1999, at Dixon Health Center in Wintersville (OHIO) He was born Sept 25, 1923, in Colliers (Known then as Logrow), the son of William S. (#36585, OS263) and Minnie T. Carrigan Oiler. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his first wife, Marge Oiler, and his second wife, Joyce Ann Blair Oiler. He was a retired, self employed construction worker. He also wrote and played music. Surviving are one sister, Cora Pribish of Avella, PA: four grandchildren; several great-grand children; and several nieces and nephews. Private services will be held at the convenience of the family. Arrangements are being handled by Clarke Funeral Home, 302 Main Street, Toronto. No mention of his son at all. I think this is the most unfeeling obit I have ever read. So very sad. Also, Martin Lester has a daughter out there somewhere, he had little info on her. I think, maybe her name is Lisa. I will try to find out for sure. Now there is only one member of William Sylvester Oiler and Minnie Tamson Carrigan alive, and that is Cora Oiler Pribish. Martin and I were distant cousins, but our friendship made us closer, he called me his niece. I did not hear of his passing until Sunday. I also had other bad news on Sunday. My first cousin, whom I was close to, and we were the same age, Marvin Clifton had an accident at work, he worked on the railroad at Weirton Steel Mill, he was riding on the side of his train when it derailed and threw him between his train and another one. He was aware of what was going on. They took him to local hospital and then life flighted him to Pittsburgh, but he had lost too much blood and couldn't be revived. This news I found out Sunday noon, it had happened on Saturday. So, this weekend I have lost a member from both sides of my family. Marvin was good people. He was a family man through and through. They both will be missed. I am always glad that I have my faith, and am a Christian, but at times like these, it is of much comfort. Now, on a lighter note, I am finding more and more information on our family. I have found some of the answers to my own questions about some of the families that just didn't add up. As soon as I can I will get it out to you. I love the book that you sent. I really think it is a good idea for you to write a book. You have a wealth of knowledge about genealogy and with your data base, it would be a big hit. I'll put in my reserve now. Well, I am going to go now. I will get back to you ASAP. Have a Good Friendship Week (Cousin) Take Care. Be Well. Sincerely, Brenda

My Dear Sir;-- If any mortal ever needed to ask for a pardon for a seemingly neglect, it sure is the writer. But while sometime has elapsed I can make some excuses. First I have been on the run this summer visiting in three states, and then we have had the hottest summer ever, and then I have been waiting to get more in the way of a record that I had when your very valuable letter came.

I sure was glad to receive it, and assure you that I will not be so negligent again. I want to congratulate you on the fine record you have so far secured on your family. and so better than I that I am ashamed to tell you what little success I have had. As you have the letter that I wrote to Mr F.B.Iler at Harrow Canada, that explains about all that I have been able to secure so far, but I have been getting after new lines and hope to be able to get something more definite and am willing to give you the benefit of my findings.

Now at present I have not a scarcely single item to add to that letter in the way of a record. This is the one thing that has delayed me from writing you as I could not add anything. But now the winter is coming along and I do most of that sort of work at this time of the year and will keep in touch with you.

Now here is the way the Eiler line runs as to our family--and starting with myself--Homer Eiler, and my father Lewis Eiler, and his father Conrad Eiler and his father --Jacob Iler ,,,, notice that I now spell his name Iler, as it seems that my grandfather Conrad is the only one of THIS Eiler branch that spells it with an --E. That was caused in the early school days when grandfather went to school and the teacher said to spell it with an E, and the reason why the other brothers and sisters of his still continued the name Iler was because the mother of my grandfather died when he was 4 years old and he was sent to other folks to raise away from all his brothers and sisters.

Now then as far as ~~my grandfather~~ at present to find out, the children of this Jacob Iler are ---Jacob Jr--John--Conrad--(my grandfather) and a girl named Mary, (Polly) she married a man by the name of William Murphy and settled in Iowa. But we have heard that Conrad my grandfather say that there were 7 brothers in his family, and sometimes we think that he meant 7 brothers of his father, so you see we are very blank,.

My Grandfather was born in 1815 in Pickaway Co Ohio, and we have a tombstone at his fathers grave in and near Findlay Ohio which states that Jacob Sr died in 1858 aged 92 years which would make him born in 1766, and that comes close to the date of your Jacob Sr 1771. By the way did you ever hear or have any records of splaces in your records anywhere or old letters or in Bible records which speak of Findlay--Ohio--Hancock Co and Pickaway Co Ohio and Frederick Co Maryland. These are the places connected with our family.

Now then the descendents of the man John Iler live close by you in Mich and they have written me that they had heard of Ilers living close to Detroit who they claimed were related to them. But that is about all that they can claim, and I have written several of them about it.

Here are the names of these Mich folks--Charles A Iler Hopkins Mich (Rural Mail carrier)--- James T. Iler Cadillac Mich 130 Ayers St---and Mrs R. Elizabeth (Iler) Davenport at Cedar Springs Mich. They are like so many folks, and know but very little.

My grandfather left a record to us by word of mouth saying that his ancestors came from Hesse Cassell Germany, and by an examination I find that this is in what is known ~~and~~ as Alsace & Lorraine, Also we are under the impression that they were of the Lutheran faith.

I want to thank you for your splendid explanantions about the name Eiler, as I intend to use it with your permit in my history when completed, if I ever get enough material for it.

My Dear Sir;--Please pardon me for bothering you again, as I had been so anxious to hear from you to my letter of Sept 22 in which I wrote you fully concerning our family record.

Well I have been working at it all the time and do not seem to get very far with it. The trouble is of the similarity of given names, as there are so many Jacob--Conrod-- Peter--^Frederick--and etc that I get confused

I was wondering if you had as I wrote any old letters speaking about places in Ohio, as referred to in my letter of Sept 22.--That would be a clue.

Notice what I said about the Ilers living in Mich claiming that the Ilers over across the line were relatives. Did you ever get in touch with ~~th~~ those names and addresses I gave you. Would suggest that you do as it might lead to something.

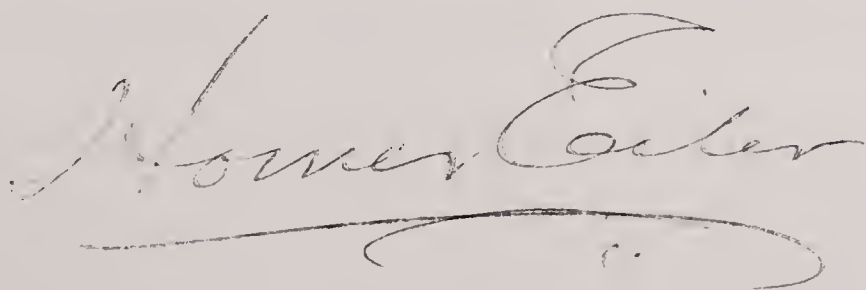

Have you any mention of Hesse Cassel Germany in all your records and that would be also a clue, that we both belong to this family.

That statement that there were three brothers is the item that interests me and please let us thresh this out and see what there is in it. I wish you would please suggest something for me to do to help along in the search.

Note that I had asked in that letter about the addresses of Ilers in Penna. Please give me the names of some and I will trace them.

May I have the pleasure of hearing from you soon.

Resp,

Also that splendid chart you sent I want to thank you as it shows up so nicely the record. I was in hopes that I could place Jacob who was Jr, on it, as my Jacob, but can not as you see.

You know how I sometimes fix this up and I want you to write me what you think of it.---

That your Jacob Sr, and my Jacob Sr born in 1766, and yours born in 1771 were cousins first, the sons of two of the brothers who came from Germany now then this is only a supposition and not a single proof to substantiate it.

It is certain that Jacob is a family name, and now if we only can get the names of the three brothers, and their date of coming to U.S. then we would have clear sailing. Please answer me on this point----

Now here is another thing, please do you have any names of places in Penna that are mentioned among the Iler ancestors there. Please be sure and tell me, as we have it also that while our original German ancestors settled in Frederick Co Md that later they moved over into Penna. Note that point--

Well here is hoping that you can get hold of dates and places in Pa, Md and Germany so that we can compare.

I am going after it strong from now on and will keep you posted and not be so negligent as before.

Again thanking you for your fine letter, and hoping to hear from you soon I am

Yours Resp,

Ralph Iler

I make that you can add something

Dear Brother (Don't worry Iok)
624-J61

I am in receipt of another letter from you which gives us much satisfaction. To hear that you were all well & doing well, (Recd your letter Nov^r 22^d 1854). We were quite struck with amazement & regretted the death of our old pehoolmate & friend J. W. M. & further a long & necessary others of our friends. It appears that you are well & happy in the same manner.

I say nothing more about the Rebellion at Ballarath. Than to merely mention that we find you the papers quite regular, to let you know yourselves the state of affairs & this is in general. You will learn from them the details of the people towards the Government. This little fight took place between soldiers & diggers within a mile of our camp. We were on the battle ground about an hour after the fight was over. Before the dead men & wounded were taken away. I counted 19 men killed & 22

I say nothing more about the rebellion at Badollet. Than to merely mention that we find upon the papers quite regular, to let you know yourself, the state of affairs & things in general. You will learn from them the distribution of the people towards the Government. This little fight took place between 200 soldiers & diggers within a mile of our camp. We were on the battle ground about an hour after the fight was over. I suppose the dead men & wounded were taken away. I counted 12 men being dead & two badly wounded on the ground. Some were taken away by their friends.
It is rather a hard fight to see a battle. Men being around some with their brains out. Some one way & some another some just beating the wing &c but it did take a little affect on us, for we don't mind seeing a man knocked over every once and a while. There was one Canadian a very nice young man from Toronto by the name of Pop. who was shot through the vitals. he died 24 hours after. a true warrior. I have just had the & took my pot of apples off the fire. & returned to my pen again. We have been hard at work today preparing the shirts & the quilted looks very well as far as we can see. (That is the mobs very well in it.) Upon my word I hate cooking, but never refuse eating) we are talking of getting a cook. for cooking & looking around for an hour after you come home from work. before you can sit down to eat your meat. Makes you lose your appetite. It is not half the trouble that it might be. We often get our dinners at the boarding houses. (3 per meal) etc; John I would like to have you here a month or so more. Just to let you see a little of gold digging. I make you cook all the time. just enough to make you generally useful.
You would be content to stop where you are then? No Chaffin. I am not going in the least that I ever came here. for if I was to go home with no more money than what I left with. I would consider my experience worth more than my time & all, that I could have earned at home. beside if I get a nice pile of money. I would see some more of this little world before I would see old Canada. I oh if nothing happened

One year's traveling is worth seven years schooling, and more traveling would do any of our boys around home. More service than three years at home, & steady in school. I hope that our folks will not neglect ⁶³² George's education. be sure and do all for him that lies in your power. & if you should take a trip to N.Y. passara on any place else. be sure to take him out with you. for his own good. & my satisfaction of mind. L.A. M. 1 60.

land, on a paper to give us the news. I would give $100. if I could see him a letter from his own hand. I am always anxious to hear from him: for when I hear that they are all well, it pleases me very much, but there is something lacking still, that is Georges progress. I hope that nearly all of the youth can read & write very well now. Tell them all that. I often think of them. When sitting alone or alone. I how ill. I often times treated them, but never mind that. That you still have an affectionate warm hearted. Brother Joe is always wishing for your return. I have by contract to get back before two or three years. but I do not expect finer they that. better look out if I get home & find any of them married. because they must remember me. the oldest girl. To it is worth along keep moving, for it was ~~very~~ moving that we arrived here. & if a man wishes to get gold. he must drive a head & keep working. it not got by playing. but if a man is born to be rich, it seems as if he must have it. If John & I had never sold the pickaxe shovel in this country. we might have been ready for home by this time. but Gold digging is very devoting. for when you are working at something steady. you now just about what your weeks work will amount to. but digging you are always expecting something heavy all at once.
which is very dull at present. on account of the confusion of the present. & Government. I have not heard from the Crookshanks boys since Sept. but I think that they are at Preswicks Creek. 14 miles from here (I am no great hand for running about. so long as I can find any thing to do when I am at home.)

I am very sorry that have not received any letter from Thos. J. Elliott for it appears that he has written me. but I never got any of it. I was very sorry to hear of the wheat crop being such a failure at home. It would seem rather queer to have to live on corn

I am very sorry that have not received any letter from Thos. J. Elliott for it appears that he has written me, but I never got any of it. I was very sorry to hear of the wheat crop being such a failure at home, it would turn out to have to live on corn & I believe bread. We have plenty here at present. Purchased flour, but it is hard to say how long we will have the same to say. I have those you have had a while on the eas before this time. I am still in the hear of the progress of Canada, although I may never settle there, I live back to America. I think that if I ever get out of this I shall not will never live under the Pedicular government again. I shall leave this country as soon as all is right to become a cosmopolitan. it only seems as a prison. that I ever had a home sometimes. having so much to think of. & forming new acquaintance nearly every day, many now seem like old & good friends. I have had the pleasure of dining ~~with~~ ^{at} a great number of respectable persons from nearly all parts of the U. S. to be seen with at the Irish night, whether to encourage our acquaintance or not. & if this do not suit me, it is very easy to cut it off. I received a letter from Wyle yesterday. & will send back a few lines enclosed in this of yours. When he writes to you we will let it do for all of our friends, supposing that they will address him from our letters & newspapers. ^{(1383? (J54))} I said on young Davis he had better come out here than to stop there, the way that Kings seems to be with him. & it is that I understand. Woman looks out for herself. Tell him so the first time you see him. Tell him that I said so, or at least I know very well that I would, excuse bad writing and Give my best & most humble respects to Father & Mother & all the rest of the family & accept the same ~~expressly~~ ^{very} cordially 675 adieu, & in particular the old maids. Tell them to bid adieu one they with all ways have a friend with best wishes for your prospering

080 - Descendancy Narrative of Conrad Michael Euler (62)

I. CONRAD MICHAEL EULER (62) was born circa 1650 in Germany. He married ANNA CATHERINA HELFENBEIN (60) before 1674 in Germany. He died on 22 October 1694 in Maar Hessen, Germany.

A. JOHAN CONRAD EULER (32) was born on 16 July 1675 in Marr Hessen, Germany. He married ANNA MARGARET GEMELCKS (33), daughter of JOHANNES GEMELCKS (87), on 3 July 1709 in Germany. He died in 1751 in Manheim Townplace, York, PA.

1. ELIZABETH OYLER (34) was born in 1711 in Germany.

2. CATHARINA EILER (36). Her married name was VERDRIE. She was born in 1715 in Germany. She married JACOB VERTREAZ VERDRIE (41) on 9 March 1735/36.

3. MARIA DOROTHEA EULER (35). Her married name was GELWICKS. She was born in 1716 in Germany. She married FREDERICK HENRY GELWICKS (40) on 10 April 1733.

4. JOHN JACOB EILER (86) Jacob Eyler came with his parents from Germany to Philadelphia. From there they settled around York, Pennsylvania where they farmed and pursued other occupations. Jacob for instance, was a carpenter. They finally moved to Bedford, Pennsylvania. He was a member of The German Reformed church known at The Brethern. BRETHREN HERITAGE Brethren Beliefs In a climate of centuries of religious turmoil in Europe, and especially Germany, Martin Luther nailed his 95 thesis to the Cathedral door in 1517. What followed was a flood of reactions resulting in the Protestant Reformation. Murder, torture, persecution, and continuous 'religious war' from 1600-1750. Emerging from this turmoil were the three State Churches: Roman Catholic, Lutheran, and Calvinists. The fourth group was the Waldensians, a common people who first appeared in the 14th, 15th, and 16th centuries. During the 15th century, a group emerged from the Waldensians and lived in fear of persecution in Bohemia and Moravia. These people were known as the Moravins and were led by Count Zinzendorf in the 18th century. The Moravians later came to America and engaged in missionary work with the American Indian. They had a settlement in Gnadenhutzen. Schoenbrunn, and Zoar, Ohio (in the northeastern part of the state), under the leadership of David Zeisberger. In the 16th century, the Hutterites arose from the Anabaptist group in Moravia, Slovakia, and Transylvania. After 100 years, they fled to Russian Ukraine for religious freedom, where they lived for 100 years, then moved to America in the 1870's. In the early 16th century, the Reverend Monsignor Menno Simons, a Catholic Priest, became disturbed by the slaughter of Protestant 'heretics' and began to preach according to his conscience. Gathering quite a group, they broke from Rome in 1535 and sought exile. They became known as Mennonites. In 1793, at Markirch (St. Marie-aux Mines), Minister Jacob Amann caused a division in Mennonites. Those who followed Amann were called the 'Amish Mennonites' after him. They resided in Waldeck, Germany. Mennonites were constantly looking for a tolerant sovereign who would permit unrestricted practice of their religion. They remained devoted to their faith, even when the authorities demanded otherwise. Their reputation as excellent farmers served as a real benefit since noble and ecclesiastical landlords preferred them as konduktorens (lease managers) for their estates. As early as 1652, a Baron Von Venningen, as an agent for the Kraichgau Knighthood, came to Upper Alsace to enlist konduktorens among the Anabaptists who had fled from Switzerland. These deserted Anabaptist estates had been depopulated during the Thirty Year War. The Prince Bishop of Basel and the Counts of Moempelgard (Montbeliard) welcomed Swiss Anabaptists within their territories, where Mennonite congregations remain today. The Elector of the Palatinate also cooperated with Mennonites, granting them certain freedoms under the Concession of 1664. However, this war retracted by his successor. The reluctant governments accepted religious outsiders because their territories needed people to rebuild the war-torn villages. When Alsace became part of France, the Zweibruecken Counts Palatine, owners of the County of Rappolstein, had come under the sovereignty of the 'most Christian' King, Louis XIV of France, who around 1712 decreed the expulsion of the Anabaptists. Christian III from Zweibruecken-Birkenfeld was serving as officer, even though he did not agree with them. Special treatment was still shown to the Mennonite tenants of the Zweibruecken-Wittelsback family at that time, and it continued for generations. Some of the 18th century noble families also showed affection toward the Mennonites, as well as other religious outsiders, because of their own human and moral attitudes and granted asylum to them. One such example concerns the Counts of Sayn-Wittgenstein, in whose small territory at the southern edge of the Rothaargebirge in the 18th century numerous religious refugees (among them Amish-Mennonites) sought asylum. The Wittgenstein dynasty was united in marriage by two French great-granddaughters of the nobleman Pierre de la Place. He had been killed in the bloody St. Bartholomew's. Traditionally, they felt attached to Huguenots, but also granted asylum to other religious, persecuted people, including the Amish-Mennonites. Another reason for the Mennonites settlement in the area of Wittgenstein, Germany, was Count of Sayn-Wittgenstein, Count Ludwig, who invited the popular reformed theologian Caspar Olevianus to his court. Count Ludwig had also studied with Kuther at Erfurt University. One of Count Ludwig's successors, Count Casimir, while ruling at Berlebeurg from 1712 to 1741, also studied at Halle University, where he met August Hermann Francke, the originator of the Halle Orphan Homes and co-founder of Pietism under Philip Jacob Spener. He eagerly followed these social and humane ideas. His mother, the Countess widow Sophy, nee Zur Lippe-Brake, who had led the government for her minor son, invited Lord Hochmann von Hohenau to work for her. He, consequently, had a large influence on the young Count Casimir. Lord Hochmann was one of the most important personalities of Pietism. He was known to have associated with the Mennonites 'Kurpfalz' and thought much like the Mennonites concerning baptism. The Countess' brother and guardian of her children considered this 'secretarian's' influence quite detrimental and demanded that he leave. When the Countess refused to cooperate, peaceful Hochmann was imprisoned and later banished. years later, he returned to Berleburg, where he died in 1721. Gerhard Tersteegen, the Protestant hymn writer, visited his tomb and dedicated a poem to him. Amann's Amish Mennonites, at about the close of the 17th century, urged a much stricter obedience to the rules and regulations originally adopted. Some of the membership had become indifferent to the matter of washing feet, avoidance of those excommunicated, and had a tendency to adopt an occasional new idea for convenience, which were termed too wordly. Therefore, today we have the Amish and the Mennonites; and we have them in America in considerable numbers and many communities. These people are quite prominent in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. The 'Big Valley' of Mifflin County, Pennsylvania, is also a strong settlement area. A few came to America before William Penn; but the first members of them were families who settled in what is now Germantown, Pennsylvania, in 1683, coming here from Crefeld, Germany. The first known Mennonite meeting house in America was built in Germantown in 1708. From birth to death, their lives are ordered by 'ritual' to methods which others think unnecessary, or even foolish. But these people do it - and like it - and prefer it to anything the rest of the Protestant world has to offer - avoiding everything outside their own circle, as they would a plague. They are a group which seems to hold their own in a world where around them there is much strife and discord; while amongst them there is peace, pleasure, and plenty. The earliest Amish Congregation in the United States was established along North Kill Creek, Berks County, Pennsylvania in 1735. The Indians subsequently crowded them southward, where today they are firmly rooted. In 1708, in the Village of Schwarzenau, in the province of Wittgenstein in Hesse-Cassel, Germany, eight souls met on the Eder River. In Donald F. Durnbaugh's book, European Origins of the Brethren, the separatist John Christopher Edelman describes the Schwarzenau Valley: 'It lies one-and-one half hours from Berelburg in a pleasant valley, surrounded by delightful hills and forests, through which runs the Eder River and other cool brooks...they must have lived as if in a cloister in this solitude because there were only the manor and a few small houses to be seen...For people who loved solitude, it was most delightful to live there.' After much study and taking God and their Bible as their guide, these eight souls were baptized by trine immersion and chose Alexander Mack as their leader. Alexander Mack was born in 1679 at Schriesheim and der Bergstrasse of Presbyterian (Reformed) faith, and he died February 19th, 1735. When he came to America, Alexander Mack was accompanied by his wife, Anna Margaretha, and three sons, John Valentine, Johannes, and Alexander. Two young daughters, Christina and Anna Maria had died in Europe. Like all Anabaptists, the Brethren were weary of war, persecution, torture (the rack, the screw, the dungeon), and harassment. So they came to America in two groups. In 1719, twenty Brethren families emigrated under the leadership of Peter Becker, a minister from the Crefeld congregation. They came in 1729. Alexander Mack, as leader of about thirty Brethren families, sailed from Rotterdam, Holland, in the ship Allen, on July 7th; 'and after a tempestuous and perilous voyage of 71 days,' they landed at Philadelphia on September 15th, 1729. Nearly everything the Brethren held as belief was directed toward an action or practice. being a member of the Fraternity meant not only believing the truth as the New Testament revealed it, but living it directly. Their convictions were an element of a lifestyle which the Brethren believed Christ called for. They ruled the members' practical relations with each other, with the civil government, and with the secular society. Their practices showed their applications as derived directly from the New Testament. H.R. Holsinger, who was forced to leave the church in 1882, looked back on the Brethren in 1901 and wrote: 'In the first place, what they believe and teach may be comprehended in the statement that they accept the New Testament as their creed and discipline. That is, the New Testament as it is, and not as they would have it, or as they understand it, but as it reads. They believe that the Book is inspired by God, has been preserved by His almighty power, and translated into various languages through his direct instrumentality; that the Book means what it says, and says what it means, nothing more and nothing less, and is not to be added to nor taken from, and will suffer no deviations. That is Tunkerism, briefly but accurately stated.' The Brethren were more concerned with the duty of the church to ascertain from the New Testament how the Christian should live and how the church should be than to do so and to be so. Uniformity in practice tended to produce consensus on doctrine. Peter Nead wrote in 1834: 'I have stated that it is the duty of the believer to unite himself to that church which has no other rule for her government but the New Testament, not in word only, but in deed; for there are many who say they have no other rule but the New Testament, and yet do not keep house in the church agreeably to that blessed book...' After having said that the New Testament was at the heart of the matter and Jesus Christ the focus of faith, the Brethren had much that was important and nothing that was dominant. This was one of their virtues, for they had nothing out of which to create a fanatical religion. Jacob Eyler came with his parents from Germany to Philadelphia. From there they settled around York, Pennsylvania where they farmed and pursued other occupations. Jacob for instance, was a carpenter. They finally moved to Bedford, Pennsylvania. He was a member of The German Reformed church known at The Brethren. He became the legal guardian of his younger brother John or Jonathon as he was later known. Daniel was 18th on the list of Freeman of Branford - this was a mark of community distinction and prominence. According to family records, Daniel fought in the Indian Wars. In the inventory of his estate a sword is listed - testimony to his military service. Daniel and Esther Moss were married at the Branford Congregational Church on 27 October, 1702 by the Reverend Samuel Russell. Esther was also from a prominent family, her family being old friends and fellow church members. Daniel Maltbie is buried at the Old Burial Grounds at Branford. His grave is near his father and mother's. His tombstone no longer stands due to vandalism. In 1700, Daniel Maltbie joined the Church at Branford. Esther Moss, who was to become his wife, joined the church at the same time. They were married Oct. 27, 1702. (Branford Record). She was the daughter of John Moss (or Morse) and Mary Lothrop. John Moss was a son of John Moss, New Haven Planters Association, June 4, 1639. Born in England, 1604. Member of 1st General Court, 1639 and 1648, 1649 and 1664. Corporal, Aug. 6, 1642; May, 1678, Commissioner. He was one of the first settlers of Wallingford, and died in 1707, aged 103 years, according to records. Mary Lothrop was dau. of Samuel Lothrop of New London, and wife Elizabeth Scudder. Samuel was a son of Rev. John Lothrop who was born at Elton, East Riding of Yorkshire, England, in 1584. He was bred at Oxford, grad. Queen's College, 1605, and mar. Hannah Howse of Eastwell, Co. Kent. Rev. John was son of Thomas Lothrop or Lowthrop, of Cherry Burton, Yorks, and wife Mary; he son of Robert Lowthrop and wife Ellen, and he son of John Lowthrop living in early 16th century at Cherry Burton, a parish four miles from Lowthrop, where in 1548 his name appears on the Yorkshire Subsidy roll. (Branford Rec., Vol. I, p. 224) 'June 14, 1703. Daniel Maltbie entered his ear mark, which is a crop on the top of both ears, and a hollow crop on the near ear.' (Vol. II, p. 249) 'April 12, 1705. At a meeting of the Proprietors in Branford commencing March 25, and closing April 12, 1705, Daniel Maltbie desired them to give him about 2 acres of sedgy land, which was granted.' In 1710, William Maltby left 'to my son Daniel, all that house and land where he now lives.' (New Haven Probate Rec., Vol. III, p. 235) 'October, 1710. Daniel Maltby was appointed guardian to Jonathon Maltbie, minor, son of Wm. Maltbie of Branford, deceased.' This half-brother of Daniel was then but twelve years of age. He evidently remained Daniel's ward but a short time, for, (p. 66 New Haven Rec.) we find: 'Jonathon Maltbie, Minor, child of Mr. William Maltbie, late of Branford, did appear and made choice of Mr. Edward Barker of Branford to be his guardian.' Jonathon's elder brother (by the same mother) Samuel, married Elizabeth Barker in 1715. Edward Barker was her brother. (Branford Rec., Vol. I, p. 342) 'Oct. 15, 1711. In staking out lots on Mulliner's Neck, 'D.M.' was to stand for Daniel Maltbie.' (Vol. III, p. 81) 'Deed to Daniel Maltbie from Allen Ball.' This is interesting as the first Allen Ball was one of the first settlers of New Haven. He is thought to be a brother of William Ball of New Haven, considered as possibly father of Col. John Ball, whose dau. Mary Ball was mother of George Washington. The 'Tuttle Gen., p. 62B,' states: 'This would verify the tradition, or statement, that John Ball who mar. Mary Tuttle was 2nd cousin of Washington's mother.' In a list of 'Freemen of Branford, 1714 to 1730,' the name of Daniel Maltby is 18th on the list. (p. 151) '1712-13. Land layed out to the Estate of Wm. Maltbie for Daniel Maltbie, Jan. 23, 1712-13.' (p. 219) 'Deed from *Edwin Barker to Daniel Maltby in consideration of $ 22, 10s.' [This should be Edward Barker]. (p. 221) '1714. Deed to Daniel Maltbie from Caleb Parmerly, March 26, 1714.' (Note. The Parmelees were of Guilford, and were from Kent Co., England). (p. 403) 'April 27, 1714. Deed to Daniel Maltby by Noah Rogers.' (p. 514) 'May 2, 1717. Land layed out to the Estate of Wm. Maltbie, Esqre., on the pitch of Daniel Maltbie.' (Vol. IV, p. 86) 'Aug. 4, 1718. Deed of John Howd to Daniel Maltbie of 3 acres of salt meadow and for another piece of salt meadow.' Note. Benjamin Howd mar. Elizabeth Whitehead. Their daughter, Elizabeth Howd, mar. Daniel Hoadley - their son, John Howd* mar. Martha Hoadley and their son Daniel Howd mar. in 1739, Martha Maltby. (p. 87) 'July 29, 1718. Deed of John Parrish to Daniel Maltbie, of a piece of 5th division land, which he had formerly bought of said Maltbie, for $ 2B.' (Note. Daniel Maltby's dau. Abigail, b. 1714, mar. for her 2nd husband, 'Ephraim Parish of Cheshire.') (Vol. IV, Branford Rec.) 'Oct. 26, 1719. (Abstract)' Deed. Samuel and Jonathon Maltbie of Branford, believing our Honrd. Father, Wilm Maltbie desired that our brother Daniel Maltbie should have his right in Beaver Swamp, therefore give, etc. all our rights in ye above swamp, B acres, etc. (p. 445) Dec. 7, 1722. Deed. 'Jonathon Maltbie of Stamford, cordwainer, for $ 1 30, gives his brother, Daniel Maltbie, of Branford, 10 acres of land, being Jonathon's share of the home 1st, given him by his father, William.' Daniel Maltbie died Dec. 25, 1731. Branford Rec. reads: 'Daniel Maltbie departed this life, Dec. ye 26, A.D. 1731, in the morning.' The tombstone of Daniel Maltbie was in the Old Burying Ground of Branford, not far from the stones of his father, William, and stepmother, Abigail. It was fairly near the fence, and was sinking and in bad condition. For the Maltby Family Association I had the stone straightened and properly cared for. Also, a cousin went to Branford and photographed the tombstone. Unfortunately this was stolen, and a great loss, as a friend who in later years went to Branford to photograph it, reported the stone no longer existed. She wrote that apparently a street had been cut through and land evidently was needed to make it sufficiently broad. Such vandalism in these times is difficult to understand, but I fear many old tombstones have gone, giving way to 'improvements.' The stone read: 'Mr. Daniel Maltbie Died Dec. 25, 1731 In 53rd year.' Daniel Maltbie's widow, Esther (Moss) Maltby, mar. June 14, 1739, Deacon Samuel Todd, of New Haven, as his 2nd wife. (Conn. Mar. Branford). The 'Tuttle Gen.,' p. 325, states: mar. 'June 20th.' New Haven Rec. reads: 'Mrs. Esther Maltby of Branford and Mr. Samuel Todd, Jun., mar. June 10, 1739.' The will of Daniel Maltbie was found in the Guilford Probate Records, Vol. II, p. 436, by Miss Ethel Lord Scofield, and copied by her, and also the inventory of his estate. Abstract of the will of Daniel Maltbie. 'Last Will of Daniel Maltbie of Branford, in County of New Haven and Colony of Connecticut in New England, Yeoman, made this Twenty Second Day of December, Anno Domini, 1731. I give and Bequesthe unto my Dearly beloved wife, Esther, one third of all my Houseing, Lands and Personal Estate, after my just debts are paid; the real Estate During Life and the personal forever. 2ndly. I give and bequesthe unto my three sons, Joseph, Daniel and Benjamin, all Houseing and Lands and right of Lands, to be equally Divided between them including my Wives' third part in each parcel. If any of my said Sons should Decease before he is twenty one then the Survivors of my sons shall have the Same equally between them and shall pay to each of my Daughters in money or equivalent thereto one Sixth part of that part of my Estate which Did by right Belong to the Deceased. And my son Joseph to have his part in my Housing and Homestead. 3rdly. My will is that Each of my Daughters, Esther, Abigail and Martha shall have out of my Personal Estate including what each of them has already had and by Me set out to any of them the Sum of one Hundred and thirty pounds apiece and if my Personal Estate be not Sufficient to make up the Sum then to be Equally made up to each of them by Each of my Sons Surviving and in Case any of my Daughters should Decease before She arrive at Lawfull age to Receive her Part in my Estate as above then that part shall be Equally Divided Between my Surviving Children. 4thly. If my Personal Estate after my Just Debts and Widows thirds be taken out be more than enough to Satisfy my Daughters Each one her part as above then the remainder shall be Equally divided between my Surviving Daughters. I ordain my well beloved wife Esther and my Son Joseph to be Executors of this my last will and testament, etc. etc. . In witness whereof I have hereunto Set my hand and Seal the day and year above written. Daniel Maltbie. Signed, Sealed, published and Declared by ye said Daniel Maltbie as his Last will and Testament in presence of us Subscribers. Josiah Frisbie, Uzall Wardell, Samuel Maltbie.' Branford January Bth 1731-2 'Then Personally appeared Capt. Samuel Maltbie, Mr. Uzall Wardell and made Oath that they Saw Mr. Daniel Maltbie, Late of Branford, Dec'd. Sign, Seal and Declare this Instrument to be his Last Will and Testament and that they with Mr. Josiah Frisbie did then Signe thereunto in his presence as witnesses Judging him to be of Sound mind and Clear understanding at ye time thereof. Before me, Jno. Russell, Jus. Pac. Note. In Daniel Maltby's will, 1731, there is no mention of Mary, b. 1703, Branford; nor of William, b. 1705, Branford; nor of John, b. 1722. It is evident that Mary left no descendant or Daniel would have mentioned his grandchild. Mary would have been 28 years old in 1731. Deacon Charles Foote in his MS. Genealogy of Maltby (p. 17, Maltby-Morehouse Family) states, 'Mary, (dau. of Daniel) mar. — Goodrich.' This may well be the case, as we find: 'July 5, 1730, Capt. Maltbie's deed from Goodrich. Land in Litchfield from William Goodrich of Copateneck, in ye province of Mass. Bay, Yeoman, lately of Litchfield, to Samuel Maltbie of Branford, of several parcels of land in the Cretch of Bantam or Mill River for $ 220. (Litchfield Rec., Vol. I, p. 596)' Daniel's son William evidently never married; and Daniel's son John would have been but nine years of age in 1731—hence must have died in his boyhood. (The complete will of Daniel Maltbie was printed in the 'Maltby-Maltbie History, pp. 280, 281). Abstract of the Inventory of Daniel Maltbie. (Guilford Probate Rec., Vol. II, p. 451). At a conventicle at the house of one Barnett, a brewer's clerk dwelling in Blackfriars, the minister was one John Latrope, and among those present were Pennina Howse (Hannah House?) and Sarah Barbon. During the examination of Latrope (i.e., Rev. John Lothrop) by the Bishop of St. David's he was asked: 'Were you not Dr. King's, the Bishop of London's, sizar at Oxford? I take it you were  (Star chamber Proceeding, Ecclesiastical Division of the Court of High Commission. Cf Register, vol 69, p. 284.)  Rev. John King, D.D., was made Dean of Christ Church College, Oxford, 5 Aug 1605 and was Vice Chancellor of the University of Oxford, 1607-1610, and Bishop of London 1611-1621. Rev. John Lothrop evidently entered first Christ Church College, Oxford, for according to Foster's 'Alumni Oxonienses' John Lowthroppe of Yorkshire, aged 16 years, was admitted a pleb of Christ Church, Oxford, 15 October 1602. Thence he went to Cambridge, where according to Venn's 'Alumni Cantabrigienses' John Loothrop, Lathrop, or Lothrop, who was baptized at Etton, Yorkshire, 20 Dec. 1584, son of Thomas of Etton, was admitted to the degree of Bachelor of Arts from Queen's College in 1606 and to that of Master of Arts in 1609. A brief biographical notice of him is given by Venn. Lothrop-Lathrop-Lowthorp- In The Register, October 1930, pp. 437-9, Mr. G. Andrews Moriarty contributed further information on the ancestry of Rev. John Lothrop, early settler of Barnstable, New England. Notes for JOHN (REV.) LATHROP: Information from (Patrick J. Janis) pjj0518@pop.tamu.edu; He gives the following information: Some records say he died in Hingham, MA. Was child #12 of Thomas LOWTHOPPE (LATHROP). Came to America on ship 'GRIFFEN' Is an ancestor of FDR, U. S. Grant and George Bush. BIRTH: DEC 20 1581, Elton, Yorkshire, England; BAPTISM: DEC 20 1584, Elton, Yorkshire, England; Father: Thomas LATHROP Mother: Mary HOWELL

E. B. Huntington, A Genealogical Memoir of the Lo-Lathrop Family in This Country Embracing.' (Ridgefield, Conn., 1884), is a well presented family history, especially for John Lothrop's life in England and America. Lothrop's family can be traced back a number of generations in England, and his own baptism is recorded at Etton, Yorkshire, 20 December 1584. He graduated from Cambridge University with a B.A. in 1605, and M.A. in 1609. He became curate of the church at Egerton, County Kent from ca. 1611 to 1623. In 1623 he was called to succeed Rev. Henry Jacob (who had left for Virginia) at the First Independent Church in Southwark, Surrey. Independent worship being illegal, Lothrop's services were conducted in secret. In 1632 he was imprisoned, but released on bail in 1634. Nathaniel Morton (New Englands Memoriall, p. 140-41) relates some of his background, including the death of his first wife in England. Huntington, p. 25, quotes from Governor Winthrop's Journal under date of 18 September 1634 'The Griffin and another ship now arriving with about 200 passengers. Mr. Lathrop and Mr. Sims, two godly ministers coming in the same ship.' That same year Lothrop went to Scituate, where he formed the first church there, and then in 1639 the church divided and Lothrop went with the group that settled at Barnstable, becoming minister there, too. His records of some activities and events at Scituate and Barnstable are in NEHGR 9:279-87, 10:37-43; also see text. Two of his letters of 1638 to Governor Prence mention in rather vague terms the forthcoming move from Scituate (Huntington, p. 28-32). One of the letters is also signed by Anthony Aniball, _____ (no doubt Henry) Cobb, and _____ (no doubt Isaac) Robinson 'In behalf of the church.' He became a freeman on 7 June 1637 (PCR 1:60). He married (1) Hannah House (sister of Samuel House, q.v.) and (2) Ann _____, who has variously been thought to be a Hammond or a Dimmock; since his son Barnabas was born 6 June 1636, he married his [p.321] second wife probably in 1635 (see Torrey, and Wakefield, Marriages). His will (MD 11:42) dated 10 August 1653, inventory 8 December 1653, names his sons Thomas, John (in England), and Benjamin and daughters Jane and Deborah; 'to the rest of my Children both mine and my wives my will is that every of them shall have a Cow.' His children were to have a choice of one of his books each, and the rest were to be sold, with the money divided among them. Some of his lands were to be sold, with the money to be divided among the children 'that have the least portions.' The wording of the will is unfortunate, for it leaves open the question as to how many children survived him. There is a possibility he may have been the father of a debt, 4 Jan. 1641/1642. -ve been the father of Suet. may have been the father. He was born on 14 December 1717 in Maar, Hessen, Germany. Ilers in St. Charles County, Missouri

13511?

Missouri Taxpayers, 1819-1826 (Stanley & Wilson, 1990) list in the tax records for St. Charles County 1823, 1824 and 1826: Daniel, John, Richard and William. It is probable that Stephen was a son of one of these households. There was also a 'Jonathan Oyler' in the Pike County list of strays recovered.

21240- Lm 011

At the September term, 1831, of the St. Charles Court, Ignatius Mills was indicted for stabbing with intent to kill. Jury Foreman, Geo. Kent, returned a decision of "no true bill." Appearing as witnesses for one day were Stephen Iler, John Iler, and William Iler.

Stephen Iler was a witness of the will of Pierre Pallardie on 6 Dec 1842.

Stephen Iler owned part of 640 acres, Stephenson Survey. Three lots of West Rochester 48X140, #2 - Block 16, #3 - Block 25, and #7 - Block 34) were sold to Creswell in 1874. (West Rochester was never developed.)

1823 note, June 9, signed by Benjamin Fisher, and witnessed by John Ferry. (John Ferry was clerk of the sale of the estate, they appeared before James H. Audrain, Justice of the Peace 21 Jun 1823), and Richard Iler was the purchaser of a plough, etc.

March term, Circuit Court, 1824. Richard Iler sued Caleb Williams on trespass charge. (The case was still on the docket 2 years later)

In 1825 Martha Fisher was administrator of the estate of Joshua Fisher, deceased, paying for a coffin for the late David Fisher, minor of Joshua Fisher on 10 Jan 1825. (According to St. Charles Marriage Records, Joshua Fisher married Martha Donovan on 9 Jul 1806.) Joshua Fisher "of Lower Cuivre Township, St. Charles County" died in 1823, leaving a widow Martha.

Deed, Book P, p 292, dated 26 Oct 1833, "Richard Iler and Polly Iler, his wife, do relinquish and convey to Wm. Van Burkleo all our right of legisy (sic) in the estate of Joshua Fisher, decesed (sic) -a certain tract in County of St. Charles near Peruque, it being a part of Isaac Hostetter's old survey."

Daniel Iler paid $250 for tract on Dardenne River on 26 Mar 1835, and sold some of it, with Martha, his wife, on 28 Mar 1835. On 10 Aug 1842 they bought 52 acres in Township 48 (Book P, p 299).

Daniel Iler listed in 1840 Census, male & female 30/40, male 15/20, male 10/15, female 10/15, died 13 Feb 1844. His heirs were his widow Martha (Patsy) Iler and Elijah H. Iler. His probate packet includes a bill from Stephen Iler for $54 dating back to 1 May 1842, $40 of it for a horse sold to him by Stephen. Final settlement 3 Mar 1847.

A Martha Iler married John Moore on 13 Apr 1847 (St. Charles Marriage Records, p 55 1844-1854). On 27 Jul 1849, John Moore and Martha, his wife, and Elijah H. Iler, sell land which had belonged to deceased Daniel Iler. (Deed Book W, p 109). John Moore divorced Martha Iler Moore in 1849.

In 1850 tax lists mention "Daniel Iler heirs", with Patsy Iler listed for personal property. In 1852 the land tax for the heirs is not mentioned; Martha Iler is listed for personal property. (No listings for Elijah Iler after the 1849 deed mention.)

"Mortal remains of Mrs. _____ Iler buried, about 48 years old." - 3 Apr 1859 burial record at St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Church. (Not the wife of Stephen, who appears in 1870 census, and signs a record with her mark in March 1873; could be Martha "Patsy" Iler?)

Descendants of Stephen Iler

CLARK FAMILY

My grandmother Altha Mae Vaughan was a Clark before she married John W Vaughan in 1888, it is her family that I want to talk about in this section.

Abner Clark, Altha's grandfather was born in Delaware about 1800. He married Hester Carter, who was born about 1802 in the same state, she died in St Clair Co Il. 1871, I have seen her will and distribution of her property at the St Clair courthouse several years ago.

It looks like Abner died by accident or was killed about 1843 according to some information from the historical library in Edwardsville.

They had several children, as their names appeared on the estate papers in Bellville, it also looks like the family came from Delaware about mid 1830s.

Our next ancestor was Samuel Clark one of their sons born in 1841, he enlisted in the civil war about 1862 and spent most of his time up and down the Mississippi river.

After the civil war Samuel and one of his brothers came to the Assumption, Il area, where he met Emma Howe Coleman who had recently moved to the same area with her father John Coleman. John was born in 1816 in Halifax Co Va, he came to Indiana when a young man married a Miss Howe, he was a sheriff of the county during the war and after the death of his wife he and his daughter moved to Assumption. John remarried a wealthy widow in Taylorville, they are buried under a large granite stone on the West side of Oakhill cemetery in Taylorville.

Samuel married Emma Coleman about 1868, they had the following children; William 1869, Altha 29 Sept 1870, she died 25 March 1951, John 1871, Charles 1874, Orie 1875, Bessie and Jessie 1882, Susan 1887, Henrietta 1889, Lillian 1892.

Dorothy and I were closer to great Aunts Henrietta and Lillian, we visited them one time when we were in Phoenix, and later when lived in Chicago, while we lived there.

We have 2 of Aunt Henrietta watercolor paintings that she gave us when we moved to Texas in 1957. Most of their family is buried at Assumption cemetery.

KRIEGER AND SIEFKEN FAMILIES, DOROTHYS ANCESTORS

On Dorothys fathers side of the family, the name Krieger means fighting man.

I saw a german bible in Edingurg, Il. several years ago, that said "WE HAVE GONE TO AMERIKA, ASCENTION DAY 1848"

Augustus Simeon Krieger born 17 Sept. 1814, died in Logan Co Il. Oct 1869, married Amelia Meyer also born in Germany about 1841. Amelia lived until about 1880 and died on her farm Northwest of Stonington, Il.

3 daughters were born in Germany Fredricke Amilin 5 March 1842, Maria Johanna 20 Dec. 1843, and Wilhemenia Sofia Charlotte 11 May 1848.

The balance of their children were born in darke Co Ohio, Carolyn Elizabeth Dorothea, 18 Nov 1850, Christian Karl 26 Feb. 1862, Elizabeth Charlotte 22 April 1854, Frederick Augustus, Dorothys grandfather 26 June 1849, died on his farm in Stonington Il. 16 Dec 1922, Fredricka Wilmenia 2 Jan 1856, Renada Louisa 23 Feb. 1861, Sara Louisa 6 Oct 1857, .

Augustus Simeon and his wife Amelia and children moved to Logan co. Il. sometime prior to 1869, where he died. Monroe has visited the court house in Lincoln, Il they could not find any death record.

Amelia and children moved to Christian Co Il. about 2 miles West of Stonington and one and one fourth mile North where they purchased a farm. After Amelias death Dorothys grandfather bought the farm from his siblings, where he gained quite a reputation for raising high quality percheon horses, this information I got from the Christian Co. history.

Frederick Augustus married Eunice Delila Hurd from New York state on 10 Dec. 1872, their childre were Grace Augusta 16 Jan 1876-2 June 1950, Emma Mabel 22 Feb. 1875-13 Sept. 1953, Arthur Lewis 4 Jan 1879-March 1951, Allen Trumbell 5 Dec. 1882, Augustus Earl, Dorothys father 7 Aug 1893- 15 March 1955, Clara 5 Aug. 1893, Minne Lapearl 1 Sept 1884- 14 Jan 1962, she died in Michigan City, Ind.

Augustus Earl married Minnie Siefken 12 Oct 1912 in her uncles George Siefkens home in Springfield, Il. Their children were Earl Louis 5 Jan. 1914 he married Hope Drysdale 28 Sept 1940. Dorothy Louise 27 April 1915 Married William Monroe Oyler 2 Apr. 1934.

Dorothy Louise Krieger and William Monroe Oyler were married in Burlington Iowa 2 April 1934, at the Baptist Church where Aunt Lena attended, our two children are Gene Kent 18 March 1935, and Linda Louise 3 July 1939, both born Christian Co Il.

The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative. In the case of discontinuous functions $f(x)$ the problem of the existence of solutions is more complicated and requires a special investigation.

In the second part of the paper the problem of the uniqueness of solutions is considered. It is shown that the system has at most one solution for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative. In the case of discontinuous functions $f(x)$ the problem of the uniqueness of solutions is more complicated and requires a special investigation.

In the third part of the paper the problem of the stability of solutions is considered. It is shown that the system has stable solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative. In the case of discontinuous functions $f(x)$ the problem of the stability of solutions is more complicated and requires a special investigation.

In the fourth part of the paper the problem of the asymptotic behavior of solutions is considered. It is shown that the system has asymptotically stable solutions for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative. In the case of discontinuous functions $f(x)$ the problem of the asymptotic behavior of solutions is more complicated and requires a special investigation.

OYLER (EULER) FAMILY, IMMIGRANTS FROM GERMAN
SEPTEMBER 29, 1729, LANDED IN PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Conrad and his wife Margaret Woceiler, and their 5 children came from Hesse, near Lauterbach on a ship loaded with people who were members of the Brethren faith. Conrads father and mother were Michael and Anna Helfenbien Oyler both born in German about 1650 and died there.

Conrad was born about 1690 and died in 1751 on his farm about 25 miles East of Gettysburg. Their children were Elizabeth 1714, Maria Dorothea 1716, Jacob 1717, Catherine 1719, and our ancestor their youngest John Valentine born 1722, he died in 1790 on the farm formerly owned by his father.

Early Pa. records show that Conrad and the oldest son Jacob took out land warrants for 200 acres each in 1733, in 1761 after Conrads death records show that ohn Valentine purchased his brother and sisters shares, so he could cintinue farming.

John Valentine married twice, first time tp Appolina Gelwix, ;after her death he married Suzanna____, They had a total of about 8 children, our ancestor was called Valentine # 2 who was born in 1754, he married Mary Molly Arndt, they had 3 children in Pa. then moved in the latter part of 1780 to Franklin Co Va. where about 5 more were born.

My cousin Earl Oyler and I visited the old Valentine Oyler farm about 20 years ago in Franklin Co. the house was still standing at that time. It was a two story brick with entrace in the center, the house was made into 4 large rooms each having a fireplace at the outside end. We made another visit at that tim;e to a son named John who later operated a mill. the mill was still there and we found Johns grave in the corner of his farm showing he had died in 1843.

Our next ancestor was Frederick born in 1785, I saw the marriage records of Frederick and Nancy Cockran about 1809, they had two children while living in Franklin Co. About 1812 Frederick his wife and children, ~~Fredericks sister and Fredericks sister Elizabeth~~ moved to Marion Co Tenn..

Hus BAPA JOHN Dame moved

Frederick and his brotherinlaw John Dame were both in the war of 1812, Frederick later acquired about 500 acres of land, he operated the Oyler Ferry across the Tennesse River not far from Chatanooga, Frederick and Nancy had about 8 childre total, our ancestor their son was dethus Daniel Oyler born about 1816, he died in 1881 in Dekalb Co Ala.. I found the distribution of Fredericks estate at the Jasper courthouse, Frederick died about 1865.

His son Dethus Daniel was our next ancestor, he was born in Marion Co Tenn. in 1816, he married Jemima Smith from Kentucky about 1836 they had two sons born in Marion Co. John and Fredrick 1837 and 1838.

They moved about 75 miles Southwest into Dekalb Co Ala., Where he made a living farming, and the balance of their children were born here. Smith 1840, Sara 1841, George Washington 1842, my grandfather James Monroe 1843, Gilliam 1844, Nancy 1846, Polly Ann 1848, Pernina 1849, William 1851, Sara Ann 1853, Andrew Jackson 1856, Jemina the mother died about that time, Daniel married again and had one more daughter.

I have seen Daniels grave in the Baptist cemetery about 5 miles South of Bridgeport, Ala., along with some of his children and grandchildren, I have also seen my great Aunt Saras monument in the Sulphur Springs, Ala cemetery.

In July 1861 about 3 months after the civil war started, Daniel, his sons Frederick, Smith, James Monroe, and Gilliam walked across the Ala state line to a small railroad town called Rising Fawn Georgia where they were enlisting members of a company being formed by J.C. Nesbit. this company later became part of the 21st Georgia Volunteer regiment. Daniel was discharged before they left Georgia due to age and health, the rest of the sons went to Virginia where they fought under Stonewall Jackson and General Robert E Lee.

Gilliam was killed in August 1862 at the second battle of Bull Run, Grandfather James was wounded, Smith and George were captured and put in Federal prison. Their regiment was in about 30 battles and skirmishes from 1862 to 1865. Grandpa used to tell me when I was a boy about the civil war, he mentioned seeing some men hung. Later from the history of the Doles-Cook brigade, I learned that they captured some enemy soldiers in 1864, found out they were former confederates so they hung 27 men for desertion.

Great Uncle Smith Oyler was in federal prison as a captive, and they offered him a parole if he signed allegiance to the U.S. which he agreed to, but they would not allow him to go back to ALA. because the gov. thought the confederacy would draft him back into service. So they sent him to Springfield il., he ended up in the Edinburg Il area working as a farm hand, after the war he encouraged grandfather James and great uncle Andrew to come to Taylorville area in 1867 Grandfather James married May Elizabeth Watts from Kentucky in 1872, their children were Bertha 1873, she married Elmer Harmon, Ada Mae 1876 married William Poor, Lewis Daniel 9 March 1877 married Elsie Lee Vaughan in Decatur 16 July 1913, Walter 1882 married Ethel(Irvin, Nia Pearl 1884 married Ambrose Baughman.

Lewis Daniel and Elsie Lee Oylers children were William Monroe 26 Feb 1914 married Dorothy Louise Krieger, Dolores Pearl 26 April 1915 married John Mathon, Dolores died 16 Feb 1994, Paul and Pauline twins born 10 Sept. 1918, Paul married Marjorie Deweese, Paul died 4 sept. 1990, Pauline married Elmer Lading, Our folks moved about that time to adjoining farm so our dad could farm more land to support their growing family.

Robert Lynn was born 18 Jan 1926 married Helen Norris, he died 12 Feb 1993, Harlow Merle born 18 March 1927, he married Mary Edwards, our last brother Dwayee Vaughan was born 11 April 1931, the year I graduated from high school, Dwayee died 18 Nov 1994.

Monroe married Dorothy Louise Krieger 2 April 1934 in Burlington Iowa, our two children are Gene Kent 18 March 1935 married Rita Lee Karch, Linda Louise born 3 July 1939 married Bernard Ruder.

The following table shows the results of the experiments conducted on the effect of temperature on the rate of reaction between hydrogen peroxide and potassium iodide. The reaction was carried out at various temperatures, and the time taken for the reaction to complete was recorded. The results are as follows:

Temperature (°C)	Time taken (s)
10	120
20	60
30	30
40	15

From the above table, it can be seen that the rate of reaction increases as the temperature increases. This is because the molecules have more kinetic energy and are therefore more likely to collide with sufficient energy to overcome the activation energy barrier.

The following table shows the results of the experiments conducted on the effect of concentration on the rate of reaction between hydrogen peroxide and potassium iodide. The reaction was carried out at a constant temperature of 30°C, and the time taken for the reaction to complete was recorded. The results are as follows:

Concentration (mol/l)	Time taken (s)
0.1	120
0.2	60
0.3	40
0.4	30

From the above table, it can be seen that the rate of reaction increases as the concentration of the reactants increases. This is because there are more molecules present, and therefore a higher probability of collision with sufficient energy to overcome the activation energy barrier.

The following table shows the results of the experiments conducted on the effect of a catalyst on the rate of reaction between hydrogen peroxide and potassium iodide. The reaction was carried out at a constant temperature of 30°C, and the time taken for the reaction to complete was recorded. The results are as follows:

Catalyst	Time taken (s)
None	120
Potassium iodide	60
Potassium dichromate	30

From the above table, it can be seen that the rate of reaction increases when a catalyst is used. This is because the catalyst provides an alternative reaction pathway with a lower activation energy barrier, allowing the reaction to proceed more quickly.

VAUGHAN FAMILY

Henry Vaughan and his wife Frances Amanda Lockridge, were my great grandparents, both were born in Nicholas Co Ky., Henry in April 1824, he died in Christian Co Il. 27 April 1896.. Frances family came from New York State, her birth 25 October 1826, and she died in Taylorville 3 November 1907. Both are buried on the West side of Oak Hill cemetery in Taylorville. They have an unusual monement about 6 feet high made of brown granite, on thr top is a large shiny granite ball about 3 feet in thickness, Someone said the Vaughans came from Ireland, I would guess that Frances family the Lockridge sound English to me. The family came from Kentucky before the civil war and went first to Sangamon County, I understand from Uncle Otis Vaughan that they brought an old slave with who died in Sangamon county.

Uncle Otis said they moved to Christian Co later to a place later called Vaughan about 2 or 3 miles N.W, of Assumption. I have seen an old tintype picture made about 1866 with great grandfather Henry and our grandfather John. Henry looked to be large and rough.

Henry and Frances had 2 sons James born 13 Dec. 1853, and John 4 Sept. 1858, their daughters were Mollie 24 April 1854, she married John Hensey. Sara and another daughter also came from Kentucky. When Dorothy and I were first married my mother had 2 first cousins living in the Stonington area Mrs Emerson and the other I can,t remember now.

My grandfather John married Altha Mae Clark about 1888, he tried his hand at farming, working in various plants, homesteading in SouthDakota about 1912 and finally working as a foreman at the paper mill in Taylorville. He and his two sons and 2 daughters were working at the Easy Opener Bag factory in Decatur when my mother Elsie married my dad Lewis in July 1913.

The children of John and Altha Vaughan were Elsie Lee my mother born 1889, twins Guy and Glen born 1892, Hazel born 1893 Otis 1898, and Aline born 1900, all were born in Christian co, I understand near Owaneco East of Taylorville.

My mother worked in the Easy Opener bag factory when she married my dad, Uncle Guy was working at the paper mill in Taylorville when he retired. Uncle Glen worked for the A E Staley co in Decatur in the tinshop when he retired, Aunt Hazel worked in the Easy Opener bag factory in Decatur when my mother did.. Uncle Otis was a blacksmith for the Mississippi steel co when he retired. Aunt Aline never had a ny childre, I know she worked as a telephone operator at the phone co in Taylorville.

All 3 of my uncles were in WW 1, Guy and Glen were in the army and were both wounded, Uncle otis was in the US navy.

During my highschool years at Taylorville High School I quite often stayed with grandma Vaughan when I had any activity in the evening, or late after school.

Grandma and granpa Vaughan are buried in Graceland Cemetery in Decatur, so are uncles Glen and uncle Oris. Guy Vaughan and aunt Aline and her Husband Parnell Stokes are buried in Oakhill cemetery, Taylorville, as well as my father and mother Lewis and Elsie Oyler.

WATTS AND HEDDEN FAMILIES FROM KENTUCKY

Monroe,s grandmothers maiden name was Watts,she was Mary Elizabeth Watts born in Anderson Co Ky. 4 April 1855, the youngest child of Jerima and Nancy Hedden Watts. The family came to ChristianCo Il. in 1857, withseveral of their relatives the Watts and the Heddens. They located about 3 miles Northeast of Kincaid Il..

Jeremiah,s parents were another Jeremiah born in Virginia about 1780, died in Anderson co. Ky, about 1839, his mother was lucinda Lane from New York state, other children of Jeremiah and Nancy Hedden Watts were:

Harvey born 1837 died in Christian co 1869

Isaac 1839

Jacob 1842

Charity 1844

William 1848

James S. 1850

I found Harvey Watts stone in Grovecity cemetery about 10 miles North of Taylorville, it was tall made of limestone very difficult to read due to wind erosion

My grandmother Mary Elizabeth was a small woman she married my Grandfather James Monroe Oyler in 1873 on her brothers farm. Grandmother Mary Elizabeth died at her daughters farm 21 April 1939.

Grandmother told several of her brothers and sisters died young from consumption, whichwe now call tuberciulosis' Over the years Ihave met several of granmas side of the family. Mydad rented a 90acre farm from a distant cousin Lewis Hedden, I went to high school wioth a Ralph Hedden adistant cousin.

The Heddens were from an adjoining county to Anderson Co Ky, it was ShelbyCo. Nancy my greatgrandmother was born 1810 died in Christian Co, Il some tiome after 1860, her parents were Samuel and Ruth Griffin Hedden, Ruths family was from New York State.

I found my great grandfathers probate records at the Christian Co courthouse after he died in 1857, his son Harvey was named executor.

Obituary, 'The Harrison News' Vol. 13, No. 23, Thursday, May 3, 1883, Col. 3 p. 3 Harrison, Ohio

Tombstone, Glen Haven Baptist cemetery, Harrison Twp., Hamilton County, Ohio

The search for the first generation of Oylers in this country started with a newspaper obituary of my great-grandfather, Daniel Oyler. It stated that he came from England with his family as a boy and settled near Cincinnati. Old records in the family gave Daniel's father's name as George, and his mother's as Sophia. In addition, family records also gave names of his brothers. Because I was led to believe that Daniel's mother was named Sophia, my research was delayed. When I finally discovered that this information was in error and had been perpetuated through the years on various documents, I was able to make progress. I found a George Oyler on the 1840 census in Hamilton County and again on the 1850 census in the same county in Crosby Township. On the 1850 census all family members, for the first time, were named. George's wife's name was given as "Sofia". That agreed with family records. However, when I checked an early history of Hamilton County, I found two Oylers who had the first names which family records had given for Daniel's brothers; these names were William and George G. One history said of these men that their father was George and their mother, Sarah. (6, pp.286, 315) As a result, I questioned whether the Oylers I had found in Hamilton County were my ancestors.

The difficulty was resolved when I obtained from a genealogist in Hamilton County the inscription on George Oyler's tombstone. As you may have surmised, George Oyler had two wives. The first was Sarah, the mother of his children. She died in 1841. The second wife was Sophia, who died in 1864. She was the wife listed on the 1850 census. I knew then that I had located my great-great grandfather in Hamilton County, Ohio.

The only explanation I have for the discrepancy in the family records is that Daniel's mother died when he was a young man, six years before he married. My great-grandmother, therefore, probably corresponded with her husband's family when Sophia was George's wife. For some reason the family then assumed that Sophia was Daniel's mother rather than his step-mother.

The cemetery inscription gave the date of George Oyler's death as 24 April 1883. In the Hamilton County Library in Harrison, Ohio, I was able to find an original copy of the newspaper which gave George's obituary. The paper was so old and brittle I was not allowed to make a photocopy. The following is an exact wording of that obituary:

OBITUARY

George Oyler was born in Hawkhurst, England, August 16, 1795 and died April 24, 1883 aged eighty-seven years eight months and nine days. He was one of a family of nine children, leaving one brother, who survives him. This brother lives in Clarks Hill, Indiana, and he being seventy-nine years old was present at his brother's funeral. The deceased was married to Sara Goeble, June 15, 1815, and sailed from England to America April 6, 1828, arriving in New York May twenty-fourth, and settling on a farm in Hamilton County near Harrison, which was then Crosby township, but is now Harrison township, where he spent his last days with his second son, W.G. Oyler. He crossed the Atlantic Ocean five times and had a great desire to visit his "old home" in England once more. The result of their marriage was nine children, four sons now living and five dead. He had twenty-five grandchildren and thirty-five great grandchildren. His wife died in 1839. He was an industrious and upright man in all his dealings with his fellow men. He was very temperate in all respects which accounts for his living to see so many years. He was scarcely ever sick, old age bringing him to his grave. In his last days he was kindly cared for by his sons.

The funeral services were held in the Presbyterian church at Harrison, on Friday following his death, and were conducted, by Elder W.H. Kern, assisted by Reverend B.W. Childlaw, in the presence of a large audience, after which the remains were placed in the vault to await final interment. He leaves one brother, four sons, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. The pall bearers were Messrs. John Small, W.W. Ross, M.S. Bonnel, Joseph Sater, James Wright, and Ezra Bonham.

Dear Grandfather, we will miss thee, but peace be to thy ashes. (7)

It is interesting to note that the obituary does not mention his second wife, Sophia, but only his marriage to Sarah, the mother of his sons. Why? Did the sons dislike their step-mother? Note also that the obituary gives the death of Sarah as 1839. The tombstone gives 1841. Family "hearsay" records state that George was in his nineties when he died; he was eighty-seven. Also, the obituary said he had nine sons; I have been able to identify only seven. Did the others die in infancy in England, or later in the United States?

The question of how many sons they brought to the United States was answered when I was able to locate in the Federal Archives in Washington, D.C., the Manifest List of the Schooner Fame on which the Oylers came to this country.(8) The Master of the Ship, James Crowhurst, swore to the List on the 26th day of May, 1828, at the Port Of New York. The Schooner had sailed from Rye in County Kent, England. Rye is a very short distance from Hawkhurst, the home of the Oylers in Kent. The handwritten Manifest List included the following Oylers:

George Oyler	Male	34	Farmer	Great Britain to U.S.
Sarah Oyler	Female	34
George Oyler	Male	12
Wm. Oyler	Male	10

John Oyler	Male	28	Farmer	Great Britain to U.S.
Elizabeth Oyler	Female	25

The relationship of John and Elizabeth Oyler to the George Oyler family is not known. John could have been a brother, or some other relative.

What route the Oyler family took from New York to Ohio is not known, other than in the obituary of Daniel Oyler, my great-grandfather, it stated they came via the Ohio River. Perhaps they were on the Erie Canal across New York.

Louise and I visited the Baptist Cemetery in Harrison Township, Hamilton County, Ohio where George Oyler is buried. The cemetery is located on the southwest corner of the Harrison-new Haven Road and Edgewood Road. It is still being used and is well cared for. I had difficulty locating George's tombstone, even though I had been told by the genealogist that it was made of granite and measured over five feet in height. I found the stone over the fence from the cemetery surrounded by weeds. I wondered why his monument was next to the fence, but not actually in the cemetery. Later I found the answer in an old atlas of Hamilton County--one that prints property owners names and the acres they own.(9) George Oyler's property abutted the cemetery, so he was buried on his own property next to the fence surrounding the cemetery. My supposition is that by doing so he or his heirs saved having to buy a lot. On the base of the large monument on one of the four faces was engraved in large letters, "GEO. OYLER". The four faces of the monument each has a different inscription. The inscriptions are as follows:

Side One	Side Two	Side Three
George Oyler	Sarah	Sophia
born	Wife of	Wife of
August 16, 1795	Geo. Oyler	Geo. Oyler
died	Died in June 1841	Died Oct.10, 1864
April 24, 1883	Aged 46 years	Aged 58 years
Side Four
	Sarah	JOHN
	Dau of	Son of
	Geo & Sarah	Geo & Sarah
	OYLER OYLER
	Died in 1845	Died in 1832
	Aged 15 days	Aged 7 months

I could not find an explanation for what seems to be a discrepancy regarding the inscription for Sarah, Daughter of George and Sarah. Either the year of her birth is incorrect, or she was not the daughter of George and Sarah, since Sarah died in 1841. Also the obituary for George Oyler stated that he had nine sons, five dead; it did not mention a daughter. However, since the child lived only 15 days, they may not have thought about her forty years later when the obituary was written. If such were the case then the date of her birth on the monument is incorrect. None of George's sons married a woman named Sarah, so the mystery remains. Who was this baby, Sarah?

Although George Oyler came to the United States in 1828, he did not appear on the 1830 Ohio census. On the 1850 census George was listed as being between 40-50 years of age, and his wife between 30-40. They had living in their household three males, one between the ages of 5-10, and two, 15-20. In 1850 the census reported that George "Oiler" was 53 years of age, a farmer with property valued at $6,000 and that he was born in England. His wife, Sophia, was 43, and she, too, was born in England. Living in their household was a male, George Waterman, aged 17. Was he a hired hand? Or was he a son of Sophia by a previous marriage?

The value of his property in 1850 indicates that George had been a successful farmer. His obituary gives further evidence of his affluence when it stated, "...he crossed the Atlantic Ocean five times". Evidently he made two trips back to England to visit.

I was able to find information about one of his trips which he took to England later. On the Passenger List film for the Port of New York was the following entry:

George Oyler--Farmer
Nationality U.S. Last Permanent Residence US Destination US
Port of Entry--N.Y. Vessel--St. James
Date 4/18/39 (or 4/1/39--the entry was blurred) (8)

That this George Oyler was my ancestor seems to be verified by the age-- George was forty-four in 1839. When I was checking English records attempting to find the ancestors of George in England, I found a Will listed in the Archdeaconry Court.(10) The Will was one for a George Oyler. I thought perhaps I had proof that my George Oyler's father was also George. However, the Will did not reveal the supporting information. The only person named in the Will was a nephew with a name other than Oyler. However, the Will was written in 1839. Did George Oyler go to visit his family in England prior to or after his father's death?

Just prior to and during the early years of the Civil War, that is from 1857-1862, George Oyler financed a college preparatory school, The Oyler Institute, in Harrison, Ohio. His son, George Washington (G.W.) Oyler was the head of this school. George W. Was a graduate of Old Farmer's College. (6 p.319) Presently the building, which was once the dormitory for the institute, is now the home of the Stephen Burks.(11) I had the opportunity to visit with Mr. Burk and he allowed me to take a picture of their home. On the spacious grounds under tall, bowering trees stands the beautiful home. Mr. Burk also showed me where the school building had been located on an adjacent lot. The stone blocks from the school had been used to construct a barn nearby. Mr. Burk told me that George W.'s initials which had been scratched on a window pane in the house were still there. Later, this G.W. Oyler was a well-known principal and supervisor in the Cincinnati school system. He was the principal of the Twenty-First District School in 1888 where he supervised thirty-two teachers and 1,600 pupils in four buildings.(12) An elementary school in Cincinnati was named for him.

In the late 1800's a fire in the Hamilton County Courthouse destroyed most early records. Therefore, it was impossible to obtain a copy of George Oyler's will or any deeds to property he owned. The 1869 Hamilton County Atlas had names of property owners and the acreage they owned printed on the map. I could find only a total of fifty-five acres for George and ninety-nine acres for his son, William. Knowing the value of his property on the 1850 census, I believe that he either had additional property which I could not locate, or he had disposed of his property. The latter is most likely, because by 1869, he was a man of seventy-four years.

One record which seemed not to have been destroyed was the final accounting of George Oyler's estate. On 13 February 1885 the first and final account of Joseph Sater, administrator of the estate of George Oyler, was filed in probate court.(13) This document was important because from it I was able to determine the five sons who were still living when their father died. They were Daniel, William G., George G., George W. And Samuel I.

The following payments were listed on the final accounting submitted by Joseph Sater:

Cheyenne to Deadwood

A treacherous trail for 1870s travelers

It was a scene worthy of the most dramatic Old West movie. Five well-armed men stepped out of the darkness at the side of the trail and halted the six-horse team that pulled the stagecoach.

Too experienced to argue when a shotgun had the drop on him, the driver pulled hard on the reins and was bringing the coach to a stop when the lead horse shied. One of the startled bandits pulled the trigger and the driver fell from the box. The frightened horses took off on a gallop down the rough trail, stagecoach with frightened passengers bouncing behind, followed by a volley of bullets from the thwarted holdup men.

Stagecoach holdups that later were standard fare in every Hollywood "oater" were not uncommon during the decade the stage lines served the Black Hills, bringing news of the outside world to isolated gulches where prospectors dredged creek bottoms for golden flecks while dreaming of the big bonanza. Narrow trails winding through rugged terrain provided ideal settings for ambush as the stage wound its way north.

Following the route charted in the Cheyenne office, the first Gilman and Salisbury coaches followed a trail of recognizable landmarks across the lonely prairies into the rugged mountainous area of the latest gold rush.

Nine Mile, Horse Creek, Bear Springs, Chugwater, Chug Springs, Eagle's Next, Fort Laramie, Ten Mile, Rawhide Buttes, Hat Creek, Robber's Roost, Cheyenne River, Jenney's Stockade, Hell's Canyon, Red Canyon, Custer City.

And when gold-fevered miners deserted Custer City to move north with the Deadwood Stampede, so did the stage, from Jenney's Stockade to Canyon Springs, Cold Springs, Little Meadow, Ten Mile and on into Deadwood Gulch.

Alerted by the thunder of horse hoofs on the distant hill and the growing cloud of dust, Gulch residents cheered when the matched team of six horses came charging down Main Street with bright red and yellow carriage bouncing off the leather springs behind them.

Oldtimers liked to reminisce about the spectacular arrival of the Deadwood-Cheyenne stage:

The horses were all done up in fresh leather with big silver buckles. And there were silver knobs on the collars and silver trim on the bridles. And they came into town lickety-cut with Harvey Fellows yelling at 'em and banging 'em across the rump with his whip. It was a show, I'm tellin' you boy! It certainly was a show ...

But, of course, we all knowed that's what it was---a show.

We knew them horses hadn't been hittin' that gait all the way from Cold Springs --- maybe not even from Pluma. These six horses was the stars of the whole line, picked for speed. The only time they ever saw the prairie was the first trip up. After that they'd been kept in a good barn somewheres this side of Cheyenne Crossin' with nothing' to do but put on their act, the dash in and the dash out.

The silver trimmings, well, that was costume or scenery. It never got more than five miles away from the terminal barn. It would have looked silly out there on the flats anyway. Fancy harness looks kinda outa place on a log of nags tryin' to get somewheres at two miles an hour.

Several stagecoaches attempted to reach Deadwood that summer of 1876, but choose to turn back rather than losing scalps to roving bands of Indians, returning from their June victory at the Little Bighorn. On September 25th, Dave Dickey, who had served his apprenticeship on the overland route to California, brought the first stage rolling triumphantly into the gulch.

Stage drivers were the superstars of their era, conveying an aura of excitement and danger as easily as they held the reins of six-horse teams. They had the appeal of today's rock stars for mining camp youngsters.

As a little girl growing up in Deadwood, Estelline Bennett said the arrival and departure of the stagecoach were the highlights of the day. She recorded the names of distinguished drivers in Old Deadwood Days:

Big Gene Barnett, Tom Callahan, and Paul Clinton. Fred Doten, Harvey Fellows and George Gates. Hans Hansen, Russ Hawley. Gale Hill and Chris Johnson. Jim Madden, Hank Monk. Bob Pugh and Red Raymond. Billy Welsh, Kid Walker and Wally Walker.

Bennett's admiration of those jaunty, dauntless drivers was well expressed.

Whatever of glamour and romance has been left to circle around the heads of the men who "drove stage" through more than two hundred miles of dangerous loneliness, belongs to them as surely as their Stetson hats. They were afraid of nothing. Their minds clicked to a sudden crisis as quickly as their Winchesters...

Some of those early drivers never grew to be old men.

"Handsome Harry" Hansen, who succumbed to "mountain fever" in his room at the Overland Hotel was quoted as saying, "I'm on the down grade and I can't reach the brake block."

Young, slender, boyish-faced Gale Hill never recovered from the bullets he took in the lungs and arm during the Canyon Springs holdup in September 1878. He died a few years later from the aftermath of those wounds.

And Johnny Slaughter had the dubious distinction of being the first stage driver in the Black Hills killed by road agents.

Eleven passengers and $15,000 in bank currency were aboard when the stage left Custer City on March 25, 1877, with Slaughter holding the ribbons. Delayed by a spring snows, mud, and a breakdown five miles north of Hill City, the disabled stage limped slowly northward. It was late at night by the time it reached the mouth of Gold Run, scarcely two miles outside Deadwood near present-day Pluma, where it was stopped by a holdup gang.

Walter Iler and Charles Burns rode box beside Slaughter. Harry Lake, riding inside, grabbed the gun thrust in the stagecoach by one of the outlaws, holding onto to it with such a desperate grip he was pulled out of the stage with the weapon. When the lead horse shied and the bandit fired, Iler and Burns assumed Slaughter had jumped to save his skin. They took the same route, leaping to the ground and racing toward concealment in the underbrush.

The frightened horses took off on a mad run down the trail toward town, lead horses entangled in the trailing lines, and finally came to a dead stop less than a half-mile down the trail. Iler, Lake and Burns caught up to the runaways, untangled the outfit and proceeded into Deadwood, arriving about midnight.

Sheriff Bullock rounded up a posse and rode up to Gold Run. The outlaws were long gone, but they found Slaughter's body where it had fallen, a perfect circle of buckshot outlining his shirt directly over the heart.

A special coach carried Johnny Slaughter's body home to Cheyenne and the town turned out to honor a hero, the first victim of what was to become a series of Black Hills stagecoach robberies. The funeral hearse was drawn by six dappled-gray horses, a match for the team he had so proudly driven into Deadwood, plumes waving and silver trappings flashing in the sun.

Sam Bass and his gang -- Joel Collins, Jim Berry, Frank Towle and William Reddy -- were never arrested for their attempt to rob the stage that dark March night, but they didn't escape just punishment down the road. Bass was shot by a Texas Ranger little more than a year later, on July 21, 1878. Frank Towle was killed by Boone May during a robbery in October 1877. The sheriff in Mexico, Missouri, shot Perry and Joel Collins was killed by the cavalry attempting to take him into custody. Reddy got a life sentence for a homicide in Ohio.

Outlaws continued to plague the stagecoaches those first few years of operation. Holdups became just another expected hazard of travel in and out of the area. There was almost fatalistic, ho-hum tone in newspaper reports of the commonplace robberies:

The Ft. Pierre stage was held up again last night. The road agents got $460 from the passengers and $5,000 in gold dust---the cleanup of the Midas No. 2 Gold Mine.

From first trip to last, the Cheyenne-Deadwood stagecoach line was in operation just a short 11 years. The end of a historically significant era came when the last Hills-bound stagecoach pulled out of Cheyenne on February 19, 1887.

There is evidence of Van Burkleos in Delaware and Maryland from the Mormon Church records. The name also appears in the 1700's in New Jersey. Many of these Van Burkleos or Van Bokelos were attached to the Reformed Dutch Church. The first four generations below came from correspondence with Tracy Lee Van Burkleo in 1995.

 - 3. Harman Van Borkelo, born about 1662.
 - 4. Jan Van Borkelo
 - 5. Willem Van Borkelo

2 Reynier Van Borkelo, the second child, born about 1659, married Mary Schumacher. They had ten children as follows:

- 1. Peter Van Borkelo

- 3. Margaret Van Borkelo
- 4. Daniel Van Borkelo
- 5. Susanna Van Borkelo
- 6. William Van Borkelo

- , the ninth child, married _____. They had three children as follows:

- 1. Mary Van Borkelo
- 2. Samuel Van Borkelo. See below.
- 3. William Van Borkelo

These children were baptized from 1733 to 1736.

- 4.

- , the second son, married
- Jane Wycoff
- . They had the following children:

- 1. William Van Burkleo, Sr. See below.
 - 2. Samuel Van Burkleo, born about 1764.
- 5. William Van Burkleo, Sr., the first son, was born about 1750 in Maryland (other records state the birth year as 1761), died about 1803, in St. Charles, Missouri. He married Marie Hyrons (Hirons, Irons), from Delaware. He fought with Mad Anthony Wayne in the battle of Fallen Timbers. They moved to Cincinnati, where he met Mr. Durst (Darst), a neighbor from Delaware, who was living in the Spanish lands (now Missouri). He was talked into moving his family out to the West. In 1790 he was living in Mills Station, Kentucky (first Kentucky tax list). They had the following children:
- 1. William Van Burkleo, Jr. See below.
 - 2. Marie Van Burkleo
 - 3. Samuel Van Burkleo, Sr., married Mary Gaty. They had two sons: Peter Van Burkleo, and Samuel Van Burkleo, Jr., who married Susan McClausin. They had a child, Orange Van Burkleo, the first white child born in St. Croix Valley, Minnesota.
- 6. William ("Uncle Billie") Van Burkleo, Jr (name also spelled Van Burklow), born June 11, 1784, in Kent County, Delaware. He died in 1867. According to a letter written in 1921 from the Emmons Abstract Co. of St. Charles, MO, he died "just about the time he and his wife and younger children were preparing to move to Texas." He married in the early 1800's (1811, according to the account below), (1) Eleanor (Nellie) Fallis, born in the late 1700's in Virginia, daughter of Isaac Fallis, from Kentucky, and his wife, Susannah (Susan) Martaine, from Virginia. Her brother was a doctor, who lived close by. It is recorded that William sold slaves before the Civil War. His house which is over 150 years old, is still occupied. He also married (2) Mary Blackstone, and (3) Charity (Clarissa) Jane Gilderland. Charity (Clarissa) Jane was younger than her husband's oldest granddaughter.

experiences, has been located in the archives of the Missouri Historical Society, from the Maher Collection, which had been presented by Dr. Ben L Emmons. The letter below is taken from a copied version with some editorial corrections to the original spelling.

"Written the first day of June 1854:

"A small sketch of my life and of ancient times from 1794, at which time I was ten years old. I was born in the state of Delaware, Kent Co, in June 11, 1784, and when I was about 4 years old my father moved to the Monangahalalah where he stayed two years then moved to Kentucky in the hottest Indian times. Three families of us embarked in a flatboat for Limestone, which is now in Mason County, Kentucky."

"When we arrived there, I saw the first Indian barbarity. There were three flat boats just landed which started a day before we did. They had been delayed by a large number of Indian canoes. The boats were well made. The attack was made in the night. The Indians attempted to land the boats but were bravely resisted by all in the boats, men women, and children. They fought with guns, axes, knives. And the Indians after a long fight and loss of a great many men, retreated. The boats floated on till they came to Limestone where they got help to land. They had just landed when we got there. The scene was so alarming. I will never forget it. I think there were about 60 souls, big and small, amongst which there was but one man and two women who were not killed or wounded. My father went on board the boats and I went with him, and of all the horrid sights I have ever witnessed, it was the worst. Some dead, some dying, some crying, some mourning. There were horses, cattle, and people laying dead all over the boats."

"We then moved out about 12 miles on the waters of Licking to Miles Station, where times were pretty warm the first night we got there. The Indians stole all our horses from the wagons, which were a few steps from the blockhouse and so when the time while we stay in Kentucky."

"On the first Sunday morning after we got to the station a young man went out to get his horse, the Indians had tied the horse in the brush with the bell open. They killed the young man and scalped him in sight of the blockhouse. We stayed there and lived on wild meat and hominy or bread made from flour by pounding in a mortar until the war was over. The year that wane(Wayne?) whip(?), my father volunteered and went to Ohio to join the army as a spy. And as soon as wane (Wayne's?) last battle was over, he returned home with the first Indian scalp I ever saw. He brought 2 or 3 scalps and a tomahawk and some other trinkets all of which were a great toast in the station."

"He then moved to Ohio. We arrived in Cincinnati a few days after Wayne's Treaty with the Indians. Cincinnati was a small village. We remained there until the Fall of 1798, when old David Dust(Durst, Darst?) bottom returned home from this country on a visit to see his brother who was taken prisoner by the Indians and brought to this country. Davis Durst(?) was a close neighbor to us. He brought such great news about the Spanish Country, my father fixed up and we started from the mouth of the Big Miami about the first of October, 1794(1798?) with our family in one small flat boat and our cattle in a large boat, but the Ohio was so [shallow?] that we could not get along. We then turned the cattle out on the Indian side and drove them along the bank and lay with the boat that had the family every night, which was very bad. The buffalo and bear often scared the stock and gave us much trouble. We got to the 6 Mile Island which was six miles above Louisville the last of November where we put up for the winter."

"We wintered finely. Game was plentiful. As soon as the ice broke, he bought a flat boat and put the cattle aboard and set out again and floated on finally till we came to Fort Massac(?), where there was a garrison of soldiers. There we had to stop and get a passport. We then floated on till we got to the mouth of the Ohio, where we stopped to kill bear meat to do us through the summer, intending to make a pevogue (a type of boat?) to come up in, but accidentally there was a keel boat which came along going to the solen(island?) after salt. We got the family in that, and we crossed the cattle over the Mississippi, through swamps and marshes, which was a severe job. I waded many times to my waist through the cypress weeds and falling over them in the water till I was half-drowned until we got to Cape Girardeau, which was the first settlement we found."

"There was Laramore(?), who was an Indian Chief and a Spanish Commandant when we got there. We had not eaten anything for two days. He gave us some hominy and dry venison, which was great nourishment. We then drove on through the Shone and Dilawar towns where we found a great deal of friendship. They gave us dry venison to last us Misear(?), as it was called then, which is where we found the family from whom father rented a house for the summer. He picked out his in Bobveeta Bottom(?).....move to it in the fall and became neighbors to the Indians, for their town was only four miles from us."

"He became so dissatisfied that he determined to leave the country and sold out intending to get it all in salt and take it to Nashville. Salt was worth $4 a bushel then in Tennessee and intended buying cotton and taking it up to Ohio. He moved to the Salenes(?) to collect it. He there got his debts all turned over on Speners(?) and left have books they was caring on the salt works. He stayed there a year trying to collect it and the brook and he lost it all but about 100 bushels."

"He then moved to St. Charles, which was called Petticoat. and stayed there one year being still dissatisfied, took what he had in salt and went to Tennessee and sold it for cotton and started up the Ohio. I was going on 14 years old. He gave me the choice of going with him or coming back here. I thought it best to come back here."

"I got back about the last of September. When I got to St. Charles, there were two men by the name of Gardner that were fitting out for an expedition up the Missouri trapping. I joined them and went along. We went about 500 miles up the Missouri and then we got amongst the hostile Indians. There I learned my first lesson about Indians. We were in a canoe and had to dodge from side to side of the river to keep out of their way. Sometimes we would slip up some of the small rivers where we were afraid to shoot, and then we would live on beaver meat, when there was plenty of buffalo and deer all around us. It was seven months in which we saw no white man nor had neither bread nor salt. In the spring we came down to the river Lamen(?). We met two hunters."

"About the last of May we came down to make arrangements to start up again the next fall, but when I got to St. Charles there was a man waiting for me with tidings from my mother that father was dead and she wished me to come to her assistance. I started with the young man and myself in a bark canoe which I brought down with me. We went to the mouth of the Ohio in it, then walked up the Ohio, killing meat as we went, till we got to the Volking Cave on the Ohio, where I found my mother with seven children. I then bought a large pevouge and hired two young men and started back and before we got to the mouth of the Ohio two of my little brothers died, but we came on, taking us pretty neigh all summer to get to portage Desoux. I stayed with her till she married old Mr. Gatey."

"Since that time I have been struggling for myself. In 1811 I was married. I then bought 100 arponds of land at one dollar per arpond. It joined hisen. and overall in the point I paid for it with 200 bushels of corn the next fall. I was in debt to old James Morgan 75 dollars for my wedding suit, which consisted of hat, coat, shirt, and pants of a cheap quality, which I paid for the same fall in venison and paltry. Then said I to my wife, "We are out of debt and got a good piece of land. I ask no odds of the world." I then worked on at home and abroad having good luck until the fall of 1812, when the Indian War broke out, when my good luck turned to bad luck some time about the first of October."

"I was warned to be at Portage Desoux the next morning by sun up, armed and equipped, for there was a great body of Indians at the south of Illinois. I started before daybreak the next morning and was there by daylight. The company met and was mustered by Capt. Samuel Griffith and was ordered up the Mississippi, near the mouth of the Illinois, where we stood guard that day and night and the next day without anything to eat except a few apples we got at portague. In the evening we was called in and sent home after provisions to return next morning, which was good luck for me. If it had not been so, my family would have all been murdered, for the Indians attacked my house that night. They fired a platoon in the bed where my wife and myself was asleep, broke my wife's leg, and hit me with seven buck shot in my thigh which awoke me. I knew what was up and sprung to my gun which was hanging in the rack. "One stepped in the house," my wife said. He pointed his gun at me and fired and sprung out of the house. The powder burnt me and blinded me so that I never got to see them for they dodged round the house. The ball hit me in the hip, but I did not fall. I got behind the foot of the bed that stood behind the door, intending to make the best fight I could. I set waiting for them to break in for some time with my gun cocked in my hand and my butcher knife in my mouth. Hailed them, but no answer. I spoke in French and in Indian and told them to come in, that they was squaws and was afraid to come in, but they made no answer. I told my little brother-in-law, who was setting to my back to shut the door, which he did. At that moment they attempted to burst the back door. I got there as soon as I could and held it to till the boy secured it. I then, by the help of the boy and a hand ladder that was in the house, got up in the loft where I opened holes that I could see out, but never got sight of them. They found out I was there and left. I lay there all night and watched with great difficulty when I would raise up to look out. I would faint before I could lie down. My wife, lying below, bleeding but never moaned. She told me her leg was broke. When daylight came, the boy took a horse and went for assistance, which came as soon as possible."

"We was taken to St. Louis County to her brother, Dr. Fallis, where we stayed till the next spring. I got so I could walk with crutches. I then came back to the point to Squire Ayrse, for my house was burnt down a few nights after we was shot and they burned my house with everything that we had and from that my fence took fire and burned one whole string of it, and I lost my whole crop which was 30 acres of corn and all my truck. They shot one horse and stole two."

"I then moved where I now live and was determined to see them out. I made strong doors and made port holes all around the house, but they never tried me again, but when they had the fight at the sinkhole, I could hear the guns so plain, I expected it would be my turn next, and when they killed Dreling in Gore Sealy's yard, standing talking to Sealy in the door. They fired 21 guns at the door. Sealy shut the door and got his gun. They come running from the brush. Some stopped to scalp Reling and the rest come running to burst the door when they got in a few feet of the door, George was at a port hole and let the foremost one have it. He fell with his head against the door step. Several of them gathered him and packed him off and they left there to be. Two rangers stayed there that night but had no guns,

HOLIDAY SEASON PAST

STATUS REPORT

orry not to have produced a full agenda of this past year. I had fully intended to get tion in the mail in December but as you now that did not come to pass. I'll try to up for that short coming by doing an ally good job of giving you useful and ting news in 1998.

off I now have the hardware capability to ce CD's. Next I need to get my files in shape so they can be suitably read and wise digested. Late last year I talked with Bob Velke the author of TMG Master Genealogist), the program I use to and massage the genealogical data I have, e indicated he hoped to have a read only n of TMG available early in 1998.

being so I expect to be able to include the um on the CD I am hopeful of producing This should allow conventional access to data and would be an emmense boost to of viewing the data in a meaningful (no way without infringing on his copyright in manner.

all I untook, along with the addition of the ble CD, to enhance my computer ilities through a new computer. While t seems this may have been a good idea have been numerous times in the ening period when I have questioned my on. It has resulted in many headaches and me degree contributed to my not getting er issue of the INL in the mail in 1998.

resent it seems those difficulties are behind ter more than two months of fighting all of problems.

- o - o - o -

Along with the new computer I now have access to the Internet and am slowly beginning to explore the new elements in the genealogical world which this opens up to me. Unless one is careful and uses restraint I have found it can be a time waster... perhaps still another reason why I missed the INL issue for the last quarter of 1997.

So let's put my nose to the grindstone and turn our attention to some of my findings during the past four or five months.

SSDI (Soc Sec Death Index)

A recent check of SSDI records revealed the following names are to be found:

Iler	458	Euler	457
Eiler	547	Oiler	262
Eilar	38	Oyler	808
Eyler	724

This may give us some indication of the distribution of the family surname. I don't however believe there are many Euler's who are closely connected with families using the six other spellings of our surname as listed here.

If anyone who does not have access to the Internet is interested in acquiring a 2 disk (CD) set of the SSDI records I will be happy to donate a set to anyone (on a first come first served basis) in the casue of genealogical research.

Population Centers

The capital of the Iler/Oyler world in terms of urban population appears to be Louisville, KY. The city has heavy representation for three (3) different "Iler/Oyler" families, viz, C, S and W along with a small representation of other families. See pages 7 and 8 for a listing of various family members in Louisville over the years.

An inter-family connection, within the past 270 some years, between the C family and the S or

W families seems highly improbable. And, while I have never been able to establish a link between the S and W families, there seems to be a chance there could be such a connection.

When one considers counties, as opposed to cities or states, it is most likely that Frederick County Maryland has the greatest "Iler" (all spellings) past or present representation of family members. In this case the largest representation by spelling is by far Eyler.

In the case of states Ohio has the greatest overall representation of family members with, over the years, Pennsylvania coming a close second. Iler is the predominant family surname in Ohio.

The family population in Pennsylvania has declined significantly since early times (1700's) when it had a relatively large family population as might be expected. Most family immigrants debarked at Philadelphia and subsequently most migrated west through a modest number gravitated to Virginia and other southern states. The majority of such southern migrants bore the Oyler family surname though certainly not all.

$$ Deposit $$

In mid December a bank-by-mail deposit which I sent to my bank has thus far not reached its destination. This deposit contained in part three checks which had been sent to me by several of my readers to help cover out-of-pocket postage and related costs. If you end up having a small bank balance this could be the reason.

"Do you believe if life after death?" the dull-witted boss asked one of his lazier employees. "Yes, sir," the employee replied. "Oh? Well - that's okay then!" the boss said. "Because after you left early yesterday afternoon to go to your grandmother's funeral -- she stopped in later to see you!"

one of them had just stepped on his business and had just returned and set down as he saw an Indian slipping on him, he sprung with his britches in his hand. At that moment the guns all fired and Indians took after him but soon lost sight of him. Charley ran to the white's fort, which was two miles from there, then gathered about ten or twelve men and put out for Sealy's. Before they got there, they saw the Indians in the prairie, carrying the dead Indian. They hurried on to the house and found Sealy unharmed but David Realing killed and scalped. They immediately pursued to the bank of the Quiver, where the Indians took water. Realing was a ranger. He had his gun broke in a battle and was to home doctoring it. The next was Elick(?) Sencor, near Kooks Spring. He was a-horse, hunting. The Indians was in ambush, shot him off of his horse and scalped him. He was a fine young man."

"I was never able to do military duty again, but had many scouts after them in the settlement."

"Governor Clark sent me three men to stay with me all the time and my brother-in-law stayed, all brave fellows. We made it a rule to never open the door till sun up. Then we would scout round a little to see if there was any signs. One morning we found a trail in the weeds, so fresh that the dew was knocked off the weeds. It appeared to be ten or twelve of them about a half mile back to a small prairie. I went about 50 yards ahead on the trail. The rest followed, each one about 25 steps behind another, so that they could not get much advantage of us. I went about 100 yards and then discovered a small patch of trash(?) I beckoned to the boys to stop. When I got to the little patch, I beckoned to them to come on. The Indians had stopped there and had been eating lying down. They had bent the bushes and vines together, made a sort of blind. We then followed them across the little prairie into the brush. We then turned back and raised some men and pursued them but they scattered and we could not find them. We had many such chases as that, have run them several times till they took water, for the river was all over the prairie in '15(1815?)."

"I will say something about the battles and defeats, the time Capt. James Callaway was defeated. There was a large body of Indians come into this settlement near Luter Island and did some mischief. Capt. Callaway raised a company and pursued them. He was a courageous and inexperienced fellow, rushed along without a spy and when they came near the narrows on Luter, where the bluff come close to the bank, old Capt. William Ramsey proposed to go up the bluff and go around. He said there was danger in following through the pass. Callaway laughed at him, and told him he was a coward. Ramsey was an old experienced Indian fighter. Said he, "You may call me what you please, I shall go round," and before he had got a half mile he heard the guns. Him and one more man they went near enough to ascertain the whole fact, then made their retreat with the news that Callaway was defeated. They fought to the last, but the Indians killed and defeated them all."

"Capt. Ramsey's battle on the Mississippi, near the mouth of Salt River. He come on a body of Indians camped on the bank of the river. He sent his brother, Allen Ramsey, and three other men as spies. They crawled so near up behind the camps, one old Indian, having a looking glass in his hand, saw them, threw the glass sprung to him. Allen Ramsey, being foremost, shot him. The five(?) then commenced to tree themselves and fought for some time till there was several killed and in both sides, till at length the Indians retreated, one by one slipping under the bank of the river. Ramsey left at the same time, knowing that there was a large body of Indians near on their way home, near Buffalo Lick. The Indians waylaid the trace, fired on them, and they had a hot battle. There was several killed and on both sides, so got....took more men, went back to take care of the dead and wounded."

"The time of the battle at Sinque(?) Hole, the Indians attacked Fort Howard by firing on some men that went out of the fort to an old house that was near. They lay in the brush by the roadside as the men was on their return to the fort over a slough of backwater, where the men had their canoe in sight of the fort. The Indians fired on them and killed them all. At the same time the Indians fired on the fort from another quarter. Capt. Craig(?), leaving a few men in the fort, rallied on them where they killed the boys, but having to go around the slough. The Indians retreated to the brush. Craig soon overtook them, about the same number that attacked they boys. They fired and ran and in a short distance their army was placed. They fired killed Capt. Craig as he was foremost and wounded several more. They retreated and fought back until they came to the mouth of the hollow that heads near the sink hole. Lieutenant Spears took command of the men, pursued them. The Indians got across the hollow on the hillside where they had the advantage of the ground. There they made a stand. Spears pushed on them. They kept retreating up the hollow till all length. Spears got on the other sillside. There they fought for some two or thrtee hours until Capt. D. Musick got there with a part of his men. After some time the Indians began to scatter and finally retreated and the wounded and such as could not make their escape run in the sink hole. Spears attempted to charge on them, but they was so well concealed that he found he could do nothing with them after making many attempts, and had several men killed and wounded. They sent and got a pair of cart wheels and made a battery on them against. They got that done, it was getting dark. Musick took a part of the men and went around the sink hole on one side and Spears on the other side and the battery was to move down at the same time. Spears rushed too fast, was shot in the head. Old Saint Scoot shot the Indian in the head at the same moment. It was dark and they left - When they went back next morning, the Indians had put the dead Indian on Spears, had cut off Spears' head. From the signs, the Indians had fixed the sink hole for that purpose, had dug

WIFE's of PETER's

There were a considerable number of Peter's with a surname of Eiler, Eyler, Euler, Oiler, Oylor and The list beginning below lists many of the same Peter's, as well as numerous others, and their spouses wherever known. Such lists, using other given names, have helped to tie several families together and eliminate a few duplications. In this list there are NOT spouses for every man named. These supposedly single men may in fact have been married but if so the wife's name is unknown. The only way to "match" couples is through the KEY (Ref) number. A spouse has the same base number as the husband followed by an asterick (*) usually, 1st spouse. A 2nd spouse is identified with a suffix of a plus sign (+). A 3rd spouse is identified by a minus sign (-).

PETER's by any "Iler" Surname

There were a considerable number of Peter's with a surname of Eiler, Eyer, Euler, Oiler, Oylar and Iler who were born before 1800. There is likely some duplication in the list below but thus far I haven't been able to zero in on where. I have been unable to confirm where any duplication exists. Just suspicions.

WIFE's of PETER's

There were a considerable number of Peter's with a surname of Eiler, Eyer, Euler, Oiler, Oylar and Iler besides those shown above. The list beginning below lists many of the same Peter's as above, as well as numerous others, and their spouses, wherever known. Such lists, using other given names, have helped me to tie several families together and eliminate a few duplications. In this list there are NOT spouses for every man named. These supposedly single men may in fact have been married but if so their wife's name is unknown. The only way to "match" couples is through the KEY (Ref) number. A spouse has the same base number as the husband followed by an asterisk (*) usually, 1st spouse. A 2nd spouse is identified with a suffix of a plus sign (+). A 3rd spouse is identified by a minus sign (-).

MISSING LINK?

There are several missing links in Oyler family lines and it is possible they are tied in some manner to David Oyler (9938) a son of Valentine II (1277). David and his wife Elizabeth Huts are said to have had 8 children but in all my efforts to tie loose ends together I have only been able to establish the name of one of the 8 siblings that being his son the Rev David Jacob Oyler of Waynesboro, P.A. If anyone can help to provide one or more names for the other seven children it could be a very big help. One likely person is the presently known progenitor of the LQ family Henry Oyler (21726).
